

view of taking it by assault; this plan was adopted, and at this juncture His Highness the Maha Rajah Jung Bahadoor arriving on the ground, his presence so stimulated the Troops that they rushed on with a cheer, and succeeded in obtaining a lodging in the bamboo fence and trench within it. The assailing Regiments finding that they were here unexpectedly opposed by a high wall and bastion, the necessity for bringing up a Gun to bear on it became manifest, and accordingly with great labor a 6-Pounder from Major Jungbeer Koohar Rana's battery, was dragged through the outer fence of bamboos, and brought up to within a few yards of it. Five or six rounds having effected a partial breach, Lieutenant Sankey, Madras Engineers, followed by the men, carried the place by storm; it was then fired. Nothing could exceed the gallantry of all engaged, the Goorkhas charging with great bravery.

Generals Run-leep Singh and Dera Shumshere were most assiduous in carrying out all concerted plans, Brigadier Jodbeer Adhikaree behaved most gallantly throughout, as well as Lieutenant-Colonel Ramchundeer Allie, Commanding the Poorana Gorruck Regiment, and Major Captain Bulla Bahadoor Pandey, Commanding the 2nd Company of the Singanath Regiment.

Captain Edmonstone gallantly led the men of the Rifle Regiment into the entrenchment, and also afforded me valuable assistance during the day. I beg to bring his name prominently to the notice of the Brigadier General, as well as that of Lieutenant Sankey, Madras Engineers, whose conspicuous bravery elicited the admiration of all. To Captain Holland I am deeply indebted for the activity he displayed, and the excellent practice made by the Guns he had charge of. I annex his Report.

I beg to bring the names of Captain Lane, Lieutenant Cory, and 2nd Lieutenant Garnault, who assisted me throughout the day, and did good service in the entrenchment, to the Brigadier General's notice, as well as that of Dr. Chalmers, the only Medical Officer present, whose activity in attending to the sick, both within and without the entrenchment, was remarkable.

In conclusion, I beg to bring to the notice of the Brigadier General, all those Officers mentioned in the 11th paragraph of Captain Edmonstone's letter, and 2nd paragraph of Captain Holland's.

I annex a Casualty Return.

CAPTAIN BARING,

In Mily. Charge 2nd Brigade, 1st Division Goorkha Force.

Camp Sultanpore, 2nd Murrh 1858.

Sir,

I HAVE the honor to inform you that, according to instructions received during the line of march from Phoolpore, on the afternoon of the 26th Ultimo, 3 Guns of the battery under my charge were detached with a portion of your Brigade, to attack the Rebels at Berozepore; on arriving near that village, I found the battery attached to Brigadier Sunmuck Sing's Brigade, under charge of Lieutenant Mylne. After a short consultation, the Guns opened fire (chiefly with shell) on the South face of a dense bamboo tope in which the Rebels were said to be posted, at a distance of about 500 yards. After few a rounds, I moved the 3 Guns under my charge, round to the East face of the tope, and opened fire at about 200 yards, at a loop-hole wall, which appeared about five feet above the level of the ground; finding however, after a short time, that from the nature of the defences, our fire was of little effect, it was resolved to carry the place by assault. Accordingly after a short pause, and as soon as the skirmishers began to advance, I opened and continued a sharp fire from the 3 Guns, under cover of which, a lodgement was effected within the outer bamboo enclosures and ditch. It was then discovered that there was an inner entrenchment and wall, which it was found necessary to breach. Accordingly a 6 Pounder Gun was with greatly difficulty, dragged through the bamboo fence and outer ditch, to within a few feet of the inner wall; after a few rounds, a breach was effected; through which the Goorkhas, headed by Lieutenant Sankey, Madras Engineers, poured in, and carried the place. Immediately after the first lodgement, I distributed portions of port-fire and lighted slow match amongst the Goorkha Riflemen to set fire to the houses and bamboo tope on the West side; this was done almost simultaneously with the final assault.

2. In conclusion I beg to state that, I observed with the utmost satisfaction, the precision of fire of the Guns under Lieutenant Mylne, who makes particular mention of the professional services of Colonel Lall Sing, and Captain Bhyrat Bahadoor, of the Nepaless Artillery; I also beg to bring to your favorable notice, the names of Major Jugbeer Koor, and Captain Indr Bheer Lama, of the Artillery, under my charge.

CAPTAIN BARING,

*In Mily. Charge of a Brigade,
Goorkha Force.*

Camp Hauree Simree, 27th February 1858.

Sir,

UNDER instructions from the Brigadier General conveyed to me by yourself, I have the honor to report for his information, the circumstances that came under my notice in the assault and capture yesterday, of the small fortified position of Berozepore, Jurnalpore.

2. On the line of march about six miles from Ukherpoor, at about 9 A. M., a report was brought from the rear to Brigadier Runmuck Sing, Commanding the Brigade of which I am in Military charge, that a small body of Rebels had been discovered in a fortified position about a mile to the West of the road along which we were advancing. With my concurrence, the Brigadier upon this, gave orders for three Companies of the rear Regiment, the Kalee Pershad, to be detached if possible to capture or destroy the party; the remainder of the Regiment was halted at that spot, and the rest of the Brigade continued its march.

3. A short time subsequently five musket shots were heard from the direction of our right rear, and immediately afterwards, the Brigade being distant about three miles from Ukherpoor, another report was brought from the rear that the detached Companies had received a severe check, and met with considerable loss. I immediately directed that the intelligence should be sent to the Maha Rajah, and galloped on myself to Camp, to report the circumstance to the Brigadier General.

4. Orders were then given that one Regiment and 2 Guns, should be sent back to the assistance of the Kalee Pershad, and accordingly I found them on my return in position in an open plain in front of a thick clump of bamboos, apparently joining a top of mangrove trees, to the Westward, a hut being visible here and there in both. Closer observation showed a fence of dry bamboos, under the green bamboos, and this, confirmed by the report of a villager who had joined us, was rightly conjectured to be the Enemy's position. The Rebels within it were said to be from 30 to 40 strong, which also was found to be quite correct.

5. Some delay here took place, in consultation as to the best mode of attack, during which the rest of the Brigade came up, and simultaneously with it, Generals Runodeep Sing and Dere Shumshere, yourself joining us at the same time with I believe one Regiment and 3 Guns. You then assumed charge of the operation, but as my Brigade was principally concerned in them, I continue the report of what came under my own observation, confining myself except when absolutely necessary for explanation, to the part taken in them by my own Brigade.

6. About half past 1 P. M., a part of the Rifle Regiment the Kalee Pershad Regiment, and 2 Companies of the Sooraj Dull with 7 Guns, the portion of my Brigade actually engaged, the remainder being absent on various guard duties, in all about 800 of all ranks, having been previously placed in skirmishing order on either flank of the village, leaving a party to protect the Guns, they (the Guns of my Brigade under the direction of Lieutenant Mylne,) opened with round shot and shrapnel at a distance of about 350 yards from the Southern face of the Enemy's position, your 3 Guns commencing firing at the same time on my right, about 150 yards further back.

7. After a few rounds it was decided by the Generals above mentioned, with our concurrence, to move your 3 Guns to a point about 300 yards from the Enemy's position, immediately opposite its Eastern face, which was there partially discernible, and in which the villager whom I had kept with me declared the entrance to be. The flanking parties were then moved in accordance with our charge of position, the Guns again opened, and several rounds were fired as before, the Guns being advanced from time to time, until they had attained to a distance of about 200 yards from the bamboo.

8. The proper moment having arrived, the Generals with our concurrence, ordered the assault. The Troops of my Brigade stationed as above, having advanced on all sides as the Guns moved on were then closed up on their respective alignments, and the 2 Companies of the Sooraj Dull being kept slightly in the rear as a support, the bugles for the advance sounded. The whole then advanced with a rush, loudly cheering. I stationed myself with the portion of the Rifles in the centre, and on arriving at the bamboos, I saw immediately the great strength of the position. It was a small enclosure barely 30 yards square with high loop-holed walls, surrounded by a thick fence of green bamboos rendered completely impervious by a screen of dry bamboos at its base, strongly fixed in the ground on either side of which was a broad deep ditch.

9. I went round three sides of the fortification for it was nothing less, and although I found the men most eager to get in, to do so at these points was impossible. I then returned to the Eastern face, and found the men crowding in to the inner ditch, having with the greatest difficulty forced their way in single file through the bamboos, exposed to a galling fire from the loop-holes from which they were suffering severely.

10. The only approach to the place, that mentioned by the villager, was at least discovered, at this spot; a Gun was then forced with great labour into a position within 10 or 12 yards of the wall, another a 12-Pounder belonging to my Brigade under the immediate direction of Colonel Lal Sing, and a third were placed at right angle to the first one, and the cross-fire thus produced was attended with the happiest results. Lieutenant Sankey, of the Engineers, who had been on the ground the whole day, discovered a small breach made by the first Gun; it ceased firing; he enlarged the opening with his hands until it was sufficiently large to admit his head and shoulders, forced himself through it, and was the first man inside. The gallantry of this act which, as I was standing with him close under the wall, I was an eye-witness of, I venture to bring particularly to the notice of the Brigadier General. I myself immediately followed the two first Goorkhas, I believe, who penetrated into the enclosure, by a ladder which was placed against the wall, close to me. I believe they belong to the Rifles, but I regret to say I have been unable to identify them since, as they were separated from me immediately afterwards by the mob. Our men then forced in, through the breach, by the ladder, and through a narrow opening, apparently the entrance to the place, but which only came half way down the wall, and the Enemy (31 bodies were subsequently counted) were, all I believe, instantly cut to pieces.

11. In conclusion I have only to say, that the men of my Brigade engaged, behaved admirably throughout, as did all the Nepalese Officers under my immediate observations, who carried out the very able directions of Generals Runodeep Sing and Dere Shumshere, with the greatest alacrity; but I may be permitted to particularize Brigadier Runmuck Sing, whose judgment throughout, as well as gallantry in leading his men was conspicuous, Colonel Lal Sing, Commanding the battery attached to my Brigade, a most excellent Artillery Officer, Colonel Koolman Sing Commanding the Kalee Pershad Regiment, also displayed great gallantry, and Major Captain Rungsoor Bistee, who Commanded the 3 Companies of the Kalee Pershad, which were detached at first, and suffered so greatly; Lieutenant Colonel Hurree Bukt. Commanding the Rifles, and Major Captain Jugga Bahadoor Guttee, who Commanded the 2 Companies of the Soornjull engaged, are also meritorious Officers. Lieutenant Mylne rendered great service in directing the operations of the Artillery. Annexed is a Numerical List of the Casualties in the several Regiments in my Brigade.

FROM

LIEUT. R. H. SANKEY, M. E.,
On Special Duty,

TO

CAPTAIN MACANDREW,
Military Secretary.
The 27th February 1858.

SIR,

HAVING been requested by Brigadier General MacGregor to report on the small Gurree, which was captured yesterday by the Maha Rajah's Troops, I have the honor to submit the following concise description of the works, with a sketch plan illustrating the subject as far as my limited time will permit.

2. Viewed from the outside, nothing very suspicious or formidable was discoverable about the place. It had all the appearance of an ordinary clump of bamboos at the corner of a village, which latter, like all inhabited places in this part of the country, was very well screened in foliage.

Some newly planted bamboo slips 8 to 10 feet high all round the clump above mentioned, alone marked the place as differing from others, and on another occasion would be sufficient warning to induce caution in approaching what proved a very hedge-hog of fortification.

3. The Fort itself was a complete well, surrounded by a ditch more or less formidable, this again by a belt of high bamboos, which was succeeded by another ditch some 10 or 12 feet deep, the row of bamboo slips above mentioned being planted on the immediate lip of the counterscarp of the latter.

4. The works were quite new, as indicated by the steps left by the work people as well as their being partially unfinished; they were situated on the S. E. corner of the village. A well inclosed by the outer line of ditch (within a sort of demi lane) lay on the East, and a pond not included in the works on the North. The only immediate entrance in the Gurree was on the pond side, the approach to it leading round the North-East bastion, and curving round in a narrow thorny path, led out at the East of the well. Nothing could be more difficult of approach, every portion bristling with thorns, and intercepted by ditches and banks.

5. The mud ramparts of the Fort were 15 feet above the level of the ground, the upper portion for about 7 feet in height, consisting of a thin mud wall, was loop-holed in every direction, the lower part, as will be seen from the section in the Sketch, being from 10 to 12 feet thick, and furnishing a banquette for the defenders.

6. In plan the Fort was some 60 feet square, with circular bastions at the angles, the banquette on all sides, 10 feet wide, having 40 feet square for the enceinte, within which the defenders could retire when the fire became too hot, and where were two thatched sheds. No steps led to the banquette, a common bamboo ladder being the only means of communication between it and the ground floor; when once therefore the defenders were driven from the upper works, they were caught in a trap, from which it was impossible to extricate themselves.

7. It would be premature for me to express any very decided opinion as to the mode of attacking such Forts from this single example, but two facts are apparent, first, that in cases where all openings are closed by bamboos and thorns such must be got rid of by fire or by being cut down, and second, the upper portion of the parapet which screens the defenders, must be destroyed by firing shot or shell against it with low charges. Hand grenades, two or three scaling ladders, with half a dozen shovels (farrowahs) and pickaxes, with perhaps a small number of sand bags, should in all cases, accompany the attacking party.

It shall also be lawful for a Magistrate to impose a fine upon the inhabitants of any Village within his jurisdiction, if it shall be proved to his satisfaction that at any time after the passing of this Act, any rebel, mutineer, or deserter, or any person proclaimed by Government as a rebel, or for whose apprehension a reward shall have been publicly offered, or any person who shall have escaped from jail or other custody whilst under sentence of imprisonment or under trial for any offence mentioned in Section III Act V of 1858 (for the punishment of certain offenders who have escaped from jail and of persons who shall knowingly harbour such offenders), has been knowingly harboured or concealed within such Village; or that any arms or other property belonging to the East India Company have been knowingly concealed therein.

IV. The Magistrate may exempt from liability to pay any portion of a fine imposed under the provisions of this Act, any person whom he shall consider entitled to such exemption in consequence of his having delivered up or given such information as shall have led or shall be calculated to lead to the apprehension and conviction of any rebel, mutineer, or deserter, or other person guilty of any of the offences mentioned in Section I of this Act, or to the recovery of any arms or property belonging to the East India Company, or for any other reason which the Magistrate may deem sufficient.

V. If any Zemindar or other proprietor of land, when duly called upon by the Magistrate or by a Darogah or District Police Officer to render assistance in the suppression of rebellion or the arrest of rebels, mutineers, or deserters, shall refuse or neglect to use all the means in his power for rendering such assistance, the Magistrate, on proof of such refusal or neglect, may impose a fine on the person so offending, or may confiscate his estate or interest in the land.

VI. Whenever a Magistrate shall order the confiscation of a Village, or of any land or rights, or of any estate or interest in land, or the imposition of a fine under this Act, he shall report his proceedings to the Commissioner. The Commissioner may either confirm or modify or annul the order of the Magistrate as he may think fit: provided that he shall not make any order which the Magistrate could not have made.

VII. When any fine is imposed under this Act, upon the Inhabitants of a Village or members of a tribe, the amount shall be assessed upon the Inhabitants of the Village or members of the tribe (as the case may be) by a panchayet appointed by the Magistrate, or in such other mode as the Magistrate may direct; and the assessment when approved by the Magistrate shall be final. Notice of the assessment, and of the time fixed by the Magistrate for the payment thereof, shall be given by affixing the same in some conspicuous place in the Village to which the order relates or where the persons liable to the fine reside.

VIII. If the full amount assessed be not paid within the time fixed by the Magistrate, which shall not be less than thirty days from the date of the assessment, the amounts assessed may be levied by order of the Magistrate by distress and sale of the moveable property of the parties liable for the same; and in case no sufficient moveable property shall be found within the Village, any house or immovable property and any rent-free or other saleable tenure belonging to the defaulter may be sold by order of the Magistrate for the purpose of realizing the amount due from him. In the case of a fine imposed on the Inhabitants of a Village, the Magistrate may direct the Collector to sell the Village for the amount of the assessment remaining unpaid, unless the owner or owners of the Village shall pay such amount. The sale shall be subject to all the rules applicable to sales for the recovery of arrears of Revenue, save that it shall not in any case be necessary to obtain the sanction of the Sudder Board of Revenue or Board of Revenue to such sale. In the event of such sale taking place, or of the owner or owners making good the arrears of assessment to save the Village from sale, he or they may recover the arrears from the parties liable for the same in the same manner in which arrears of Rent may be recovered. Provided that, if the sum realized by the sale fall short of the arrears due, the owner or owners of the Village shall not recover more than the amount realized by the sale.

IX. Any confiscation of a Village under Section I of this Act shall have the effect of cancelling all under-tenures in the Village; and shall authorize the ejectment of all tenants or cultivators of land therein; and shall also have the effect of avoiding all incumbrances of the whole or any part of the Village which shall have been created after the date of the commission of the offence mentioned in the Magistrate's order, and all incumbrances created before the date of the commission of the offence if the incumbrancer shall have been in possession at the time, and also all incumbrances made after the passing of this Act unless the same shall have been made and registered three months before the commission of the offence or the day specified in the Magistrate's order as the date of the commission of the offence; and every sale of a Village under this Act shall have the same effect as a confiscation, except that it shall cancel such under-tenures only as belong to persons who have made default in payment of the amount assessed upon them.

X. All the provisions of this Act, which authorize the imposition and assessment of a fine upon the Inhabitants of a Village, shall extend to the Inhabitants of any Mohalla or Division of a City or Town; and the amount of any fine imposed under this Section, if not paid, shall be levied by order of the Magistrate by distress and sale of the moveable property of the parties liable for the same; and in case no sufficient moveable property shall be found within the Mohalla or Division, any house or immovable property and any rent-free or other saleable tenure belonging to the defaulter may be sold by order of the Magistrate for the purpose of realizing the amount.

XI. Any fine imposed under Section V of this Act may be recovered in the manner above prescribed for the recovery of assessments, or by sale of the estate of the person liable to the fine; and such sale shall be made by the Collector on the requisition of the Magistrate, and shall be subject to all the rules applicable to the sale of estates for demands recoverable by the same process as arrears of Revenue, save that it shall not in any case be necessary to obtain the sanction of the Sudder Board of Revenue or Board of Revenue to such sale.

XII. No appeal shall lie from any order passed by a Magistrate in carrying out the provisions of this Act; but, except as otherwise provided, all orders and proceedings of the Magistrate shall be subject to the revision and control of the Commissioner, whose order shall be final.

XIII. If the Governor General in Council or the Executive Government shall see fit to remit any confiscation under this Act, all persons affected by such confiscation shall be restored to their rights as if no such confiscation had ever taken place.

XIV. No action or other proceeding shall be commenced or prosecuted against any person for any thing done under the authority of this Act.

XV. This Act shall take effect only in those Districts or places to which it shall be extended by order of the Governor General in Council or of the Executive Government of any Presidency or place. In the event of this Act being extended to any Districts or places subject to the Presidency of Fort St. George or to the Presidency of Bombay, the powers vested by this Act in the Commissioner shall be exercised by such Officer or Officers as the Executive Government may appoint; and all reports required to be made to the Commissioner shall be made to such Officer or Officers.

XVI. The word "Magistrate" shall include every person authorized by the Executive Government to exercise the powers vested in a Magistrate by this Act; and the word "European" shall include any person usually designated a European British subject.

XVII. This Act shall continue in force for two years.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to report for the information of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General in Council, that when on the line of march on the 26th Ultimo, from Moharukhpore to Ukberpore, as Maha Rajah Jung Bahadoor and myself were proceeding along the road, we were informed that at a Fort near at hand, some 40 Rebels were there.

2. The Maha Rajah remarked that they might rob the carts, and sent some of his body guard to see what they were. They rode up to the place and completely surprised them, and actually got into the place. The men inside proposed submission, and said they would lay down their arms in two ghurries (about 40 minutes) if allowed that time to prepare. Unaccountably, the Goorkhas fell into the trap, and left the place for that time, and on their return, re-inforced by three Companies, they were fired on, and several were killed and wounded.

3. The news of this reached us immediately after our arrival in Camp, and the Maha Rajah first despatched his brothers, and subsequently, in my company, went himself back to the place about six miles.

4. I have the pleasure to enclose the Reports of the Officers in charge of Brigades present, as well as that of Lieutenant Sankey, Madras Engineers, which will put His Lordship in Council in possession of the style of place, and the manner of its capture.

5. Previous to the arrival of Maha Rajah, though I believe arrangements for an assault were made by Generals Runodeep Sing and Dero Shumshere, yet no progress had actually been made. The arrival of His Highness gave a spur to the whole body. He immediately directed an assault, caused the bugles to be sounded, and in an hour after his arrival, I accompanied him into the place.

6. I cannot speak too highly of the courage and gallantry shown by the Officers and Men engaged in this little but desperate affair. The heavy List of Casualties will show to His Lordship in Council the strength of the defences, and the desperation with which they were held. It was manifest from this day's work, that the Goorkhas were capable of anything in the way of an assault when animated by the presence of the Maha Rajah, and I was very much pleased indeed with their demeanour throughout; for the service was really a trying one.

7. I beg to bring to the notice of His Lordship in Council, the excellent arrangements of Generals Runodeep Sing, Second in Command, and Dero Shumshere, the Maha Rajah's brother. Their dispositions ensured the capture of the place, and prevented the escape of the Enemy.

8. Brigadier Sumnuck Sing and Jodh Adhikaree were on the field and greatly exerted themselves. Captain Edmonstone records the distinguished gallantry with which the former led on his men, who bore the brunt of the affair.

9. Colonel Koochun Singh, Lall Sing and Ramchunder Sing Allie, as well as Major-Captain Bulla Bahadoor Gaites and Major Jaugheer Kooner Kanajee, are also honorably mentioned.

10. The conspicuous gallantry of Lieutenant Sankey, Madras Engineers, was the admiration of every one. It was by his advice the Gun was brought up which breached the wall, and he was the first man in the Fort, followed by the Rifle Regiment with Captain Edmonstone. The latter Officer's conduct was most gallant and praiseworthy.

11. I am also indebted to Captain Baring, the Senior Officer present, in charge of a Brigade, as well as to Captain Holland, and Lieutenant Mylne, of the Artillery, and Captain Lane, Lieutenant Cory, and Lieutenant Garnault, all of whom exerted themselves greatly.

12. Captain Brander, Deputy Assistant Commissary General, was in the field, and opportunely set fire to the Village at the only part of the Fort where there was no bamboo hedge, thus preventing the escape of the Rebels.

13. Dr. Chalmers' activity and attention to the wounded was most conspicuous.

I have the honor to be,

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to report for the information of Brigadier General MacGregor, C. B., that on the morning of the 26th Ultima, whilst on the march from Phoolpore to Ukherpore, with the Brigade of which I have Military charge, and which is Commanded by Brigadier Jodhbeer Adhikaree, instructions were 7 Co's Phorunah Gorruck Regiment.

2 Co's Singnath Regt.
3 Guns.

received to detach a party (strength as per margin) for the purpose of dislodging a body of Insurgents entrenched at the village of Berozepore. This I am happy to say was satisfactorily effected, after a very obstinate defence, of which I subjoin the following particulars. On arriving in front of the Enemy's position, I was re-inforced by a portion of Rifle Regiment.

Kalepershad Regiment.
2 Co's Soorajdull Regt. and 7 Guns.

1st Brigade, (strength as per margin) under the Military charge of Captain Edmonstone, whose proceedings are annexed. The difficulty of our operations was materially increased by the Enemy's position being completely surrounded by an impenetrable hedge of bamboos, which prevented our ascertaining the nature of the defences within. Under the circumstances, I deemed it expedient to suggest to the General Dero Shumshere that he should open with shell from the Guns on the South side, sending a Regiment out on each flank to prevent the escape of the Enemy. After firing for some time, and finding that we made little or no impression on the position, from its natural defences, we determined on altering our tactics, and moved up 3 Guns to the East side. I now suggested to the General the propriety of pushing the men up to the place in extended order, under cover of the Guns, with a view of taking it by assault; this plan was adopted, and at this juncture His Highness the Maha Rajah Jung Bahadur arriving on the ground, his presence so stimulated the Troops that they rushed on with a cheer, and succeeded in obtaining a lodging in the bamboo fence and trench within it. The assailing Regiments finding that they were here unexpectedly opposed by a high wall and bastion, the necessity for bringing up a Gun to bear on it became manifest, and accordingly with great labor a 6-Pounder from Major Jungbeer Koolnar Ranajee's battery, was dragged through the outer fence of bamboos, and brought up to within a few yards of it. Five or six rounds having effected a partial breach, Lieutenant Sankey, Madras Engineers, followed by the men, carried the place by storm; it was then fired. Nothing could exceed the gallantry of all engaged, the Goorkhas charging with great bravery.

Generals Runderp Singh and Dero Shumshere were most assiduous in carrying out all concerted plans. Brigadier Jodheer Adhikaree behaved most gallantly throughout, as well as Lieutenant Colonel Ranichunder Allie, Commanding the Poorana Gorruck Regiment, and Major Captain Bulla Bahadur Pandey, Commanding the 2nd Company of the Singanath Regiment.

Captain Edmonstone gallantly led the men of the Rifle Regiment into the entrenchment, and also afforded me valuable assistance during the day. I beg to bring his name prominently to the notice of the Brigadier General, as well as that of Lieutenant Sankey, Madras Engineers, whose conspicuous bravery elicited the admiration of all. To Captain Holland I am deeply indebted for the activity he displayed, and the excellent practice made by the Guns he had charge of. I annex his Report.

I beg to bring the names of Captain Lane, Lieutenant Cory, and 2nd Lieutenant Garnault, who assisted me throughout the day, and did good service in the entrenchment, to the Brigadier General's notice, as well as that of Dr. Chalmers, the only Medical Officer present, whose activity in attending to the sick, both within and without the entrenchment, was remarkable.

In conclusion, I beg to bring to the notice of the Brigadier General all those Officers mentioned in the 11th paragraph of Captain Edmonstone's letter, and 2nd paragraph of Captain Holland's.

I annex a Casualty Return.

CAPTAIN BARING,

In Milly. Charge 2nd Brigade,
1st Division Goorkha Force.

Camp Sultanpore, 2nd March 1858.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to inform you that, according to instructions received during the line of march from Phoolpore, on the afternoon of the 28th ultimo, 3 Guns of the Battery under my charge were detached with a portion of your Brigade, to attack the Rebels at Berozepore. On arriving near that village, I found the Battery attached to Brigadier Sumnuck Sing's Brigade, under charge of Lieutenant Mylne. After a short consultation, the Guns opened fire (chiefly with shells) on the South face of a dense bamboo tope in which the Rebels were said to be posted, at a distance of about 500 yards. After few a rounds, I moved the 3 Guns under my charge, round to the East face of the tope, and opened fire at about 200 yards, at a loop-hole wall, which appeared about five feet above the level of the ground; finding, however, after a short time, that from the nature of the defences, our fire was of little effect, it was resolved to carry the place by assault. Accordingly after a short pause, and as soon as the skirmishers began to advance, I opened and continued a sharp fire from the 3 Guns, under cover of which, a lodgement was effected within the outer bamboo enclosures and ditch. It was then discovered that there was an inner entrenchment and wall, which it was found necessary to breach. Accordingly a 6-Pounder Gun was with greatly difficulty dragged through the bamboo fence and outer ditch to within a few feet of the inner wall; after a few rounds, a breach was effected, through which the Goorkhas, headed by Lieutenant Sankey, Madras Engineers, poured in, and carried the place. Immediately after the first lodgement, I distributed portions of port-fire and lighted slow match amongst the Goorkha Riflemen to set fire to the houses and bamboo tope on the West side; this was done almost simultaneously with the final assault.

2. In conclusion I beg to state that I observed with the utmost satisfaction, the precision of fire of the Guns under Lieutenant Mylne, who makes particular mention of the professional services of Colonel Lal Sing, and Captain Bhyrat Bahadur, of the Nepalese Artillery; I also beg to bring to your favorable notice, the names of Major Jogbeer Koor, and Captain Indr Bheer Lama, of the Artillery, under my charge.

To

CAPTAIN BARING,

In Milly. Charge of a Brigade,

Goorkha Force.

Camp Huree Simsee, 27th February 1858.

SIR,

UNDER instructions from the Brigadier General conveyed to me by yourself, I have the honor to report for his information, the circumstances that came under my notice in the assault and capture yesterday of the small fortified position of Berozepore, Junaipore.

2. On the line of march about six miles from Ukberpoor, at about 9 A. M., a report was brought from the rear to Brigadier Ranmuk Sing, Commanding the Brigade of which I am in Military charge, that a small body of Rebels had been discovered in a fortified position about a mile to the West of the road along which we were advancing. With my concurrence, the Brigadier upon this gave orders for three Companies of the rear Regiment, the Kalee Pershad, to be detached if possible to capture or destroy the party; the remainder of the Regiment was halted at that spot, and the rest of the Brigade continued its march.

3. A short time subsequently five musket shots were heard from the direction of our right rear, and immediately afterwards, the Brigade being distant about three miles from Ukberpoor, another report was brought from the rear that the detached Companies had received a severe check, and met with considerable loss. I immediately directed that the intelligence should be sent to the Maha Rajah, and galloped on myself to Camp, to report the circumstance to the Brigadier General.

4. Orders were then given that one Regiment and 2 Guns, should be sent back to the assistance of the Kalee Pershad, and accordingly I found them on my return in position in an open plain in front of a thick clump of bamboos, apparently joining a tops of mangoe trees, to the Westward, a hut being visible here and there in both. Closer observation showed a fence of dry bamboos, under the green bamboos, and this, confirmed by the report of a villager who had joined us, was rightly conjectured to be the Enemy's position. The Rebels within it were said to be from 30 to 40 strong, which also was found to be quite correct.

5. Some delay here took place, in consultation as to the best mode of attack, during which the rest of the Brigade came up, and simultaneously with it, Generals Ranodeep Sing and Dere Shumshere, yourself joining us at the same time with I believe one Regiment and 3 Guns. You then assumed charge of the operation, but as my Brigade was principally concerned in them, I continue the report of what came under my own observation, confining myself except when absolutely necessary for explanation, to the part taken in them by my own Brigade.

6. About half past 1 P. M., a part of the Rifle Regiment the Kalee Pershad Regiment, and 2 Companies of the Sooraj Dull with 7 Guns, the portion of my Brigade actually engaged, the remainder being absent on various guard duties, in all about 800 of all ranks, having been previously placed in skirmishing order on either flank of the village, leaving a party to protect the Guns, they (the Guns of my Brigade under the direction of Lieutenant Mylne,) opened with round shot and shrapnel at a distance of about 350 yards from the Southern face of the Enemy's position, your 3 Guns commencing firing at the same time on my right, about 150 yards further back.

7. After a few rounds it was decided by the Generals above mentioned, with our concurrence, to move your 3 Guns to a point about 300 yards from the Enemy's position, immediately opposite its Eastern face, which was there partially discernible, and in which the villager whom I had kept with me declared the entrance to be. The flanking parties were then moved in accordance with our change of position, the Guns again opened, and several rounds were fired as before, the Guns being advanced from time to time, until they had attained to a distance of about 200 yards from the bamboos.

8. The proper moment having arrived, the Generals with our concurrence ordered the assault. The Troops of my Brigade stationed as above, having advanced on all sides as the Guns moved on were then closed up on their respective alignments, and the 2 Companies of the Soorajdull being kept slightly in the rear as a support, the bugles for the advance sounded. The whole then advanced with a rush, loudly cheering. I stationed myself with the portion of the Rifles in the centre, and on arriving at the bamboos, I saw immediately the great strength of the position. It was a small enclosure barely 30 yards square with high loop-holed walls, surrounded by a thick fence of green bamboos rendered completely impervious by a screen of dry bamboo at its base, strongly fixed in the ground on either side of which was a broad deep ditch.

9. I went round three sides of the fortification for it was nothing less, and although I found the men most eager to get in, to do so at these points was impossible. I then returned to the Eastern face, and found the men crowding in to the inner ditch, having with the greatest difficulty forced their way in single file through the bamboos, exposed to a galling fire from the loop-holes from which they were suffering severely.

10. The only approach to the place, that mentioned by the villager, was at least discovered, at this spot; a Gun was then forced with great labour into a position within 10 or 12 yards of the wall, another, a 12 Pounder belonging to my Brigade under the immediate direction of Colonel Lall Sing, and a third were placed at right angle to the first one, and the cross-fire thus produced was attended with the happiest results. Lieutenant Sakey, of the Engineers, who had been on the ground the whole day, discovered a small breach made by the first Gun; it ceased firing; he enlarged the opening with his hands until it was sufficiently large to admit his head and shoulders, forced himself through it, and was the first man inside. The gallantry of this act which, as I was standing with him close under the wall, I was an eyewitness of, I venture to bring particularly to the notice of the Brigadier General. I myself immediately followed the two first Goorkhas, I believe, who penetrated into the enclosure, by a ladder which was placed against the wall, close to me. I believe they belong to the Rifles, but I regret to say I have been unable to identify them since, as they were separated from me immediately afterwards by the mob. Our men then forced in, through the breach, by the ladder, and through a narrow opening, apparently the entrance to the place, but which only came half way down the wall, and the Enemy (31 bodies were subsequently counted) were, all I believe, instantly cut to pieces.

11. In conclusion I have only to say, that the men of my Brigade engaged, behaved admirably throughout, as did all the Nepalese Officers under my immediate observations, who carried out the very able directions of Generals Ranodeep Sing and Dere Shumshere with the greatest alacrity; but I may be permitted to particularize Brigadier Ranmuk Sing, whose judgment throughout, as well as gallantry in leading his men, was conspicuous, Colonel Lall Sing, Commanding the Battery attached to my Brigade, a most excellent Artillery Officer, Colonel Koolman Sing, Commanding the Kalee Pershad Regiment, also displayed great gallantry, and Major Captain Rangsoor Bisteo, who Commanded the 3 Companies of the Kalee Pershad, which were detached at first, and suffered so greatly; Lieutenant Colonel Hurree Bukt, Commanding the Rifles, and Major Captain Jugga Bahadur Guttee, who Commanded the 2 Companies of the Soorajdull engaged, are also meritorious Officers. Lieutenant Mylne rendered great service in directing the operations of the Artillery. Annexed is a Numerical List of the Casualties in the several Regiments in my Brigade.

On Special Duty,

TO

CAPTAIN MACANDREW,
Military Secretary.
The 27th February 1858.

SIR,

HAVING been requested by Brigadier General MacGregor to report on the small Gurree, which was captured yesterday by the Maha Rajah's Troops, I have the honor to submit the following concise description of the works, with a sketch plan illustrating the subject as far as my limited time will permit.

2. Viewed from the outside, nothing very suspicious or formidable was discoverable about the place. It had all the appearance of an ordinary clump of bamboos at the corner of a village, which latter, like all inhabited places in this part of the country, was very well screened in foliage.

Some newly planted bamboo slips 8 to 10 feet high all round the clump above mentioned, alone marked the place as differing from others, and on another occasion would be sufficient warning to induce caution in approaching what proved a very hedge-hog of fortification.

3. The Fort itself was a complete well, surrounded by a ditch more or less formidable, this again by a belt of high bamboos, which was succeeded by another ditch some 10 or 12 feet deep the row of bamboo slips above mentioned being planted on the immediate lip of the counterscarp of the latter.

4. The works were quite new, as indicated by the steps left by the work people as well as their being partially unfinished; they were situated on the S. E. corner of the village. A well inclosed by the outer line of ditch (within a sort of demi-lune) lay on the East, and a pond not included in the works on the North. The only immediate entrance in the Gurree was on the pond side, the approach to it leading round the North-East bastion, and curving round in a narrow thorny path, led out at the East of the well. Nothing could be more difficult of approach, every portion bristling with thorns, and intercepted by ditches and banks.

5. The mud ramparts of the Fort were 15 feet above the level of the ground, the upper portion for about 7 feet in height, consisting of a thin mud wall, was loop-holed in every direction, the lower part, as will be seen from the section in the Sketch, being from 10 to 12 feet thick, and furnishing a banquette for the defenders.

6. In plan the Fort was some 60 feet square, with circular bastions at the angles, the banquette on all sides, 10 feet wide, having 40 feet square for the encinte, within which the defenders could retire when the fire became too hot, and where were two thatched sheds. No steps led to the banquette, a common bamboo ladder being the only means of communication between it and the ground floor; when once therefore the defenders were driven from the upper works, they were caught in a trap, from which it was impossible to extricate themselves.

7. It would be premature for me to express any very decided opinion as to the mode of attacking such Forts from this single example, but two facts are apparent, first, that in cases where all openings are closed by bamboos and thorns such must be got rid of by fire or by being cut down, and second, the upper portion of the parapet which screens the defenders, must be destroyed by firing shot or shell against it with low charges. Hand grenades, two or three scaling ladders, with half a dozen shovels (furrowahs) and pickaxes, with perhaps a small number of sand bags, should in all cases, accompany the attacking party.

TO

THE SECT. TO THE GOVERNMENT,

Foreign Department, Allahabad.

Camp before Lucknow, the 12th March 1858.

SIR,

IN forwarding, for the information of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General, the Report of Captain Plowden, the British Officer in Military charge of the advanced Division of Maha Rajah Jung Bahadoor's Army, under General Khurruk Bahadoor, of an action which took place on the 5th Instant at the Kandoo Nuddee, between the Division and the Rebel Nazim Mehndee Hossein, resulting in the capture of the Enemy's only Gun, and the loss to him of nearly 600 killed, with Casualties to the extent only of 1 killed and 16 wounded on our part, I have the honor to bring to the notice of His Lordship in Council, the extreme gallantry and good conduct of the Officers and Men engaged.

2. I would particularly bring to the notice of His Lordship in Council, the coolness and good management of General Khurruk Bahadoor, who, in most difficult ground, so admirably disposed his Troops, as to secure the splendid result above mentioned. To Brigadiers Run Sing and Junga Dojo, my best thanks are due, and they will doubtless merit the approbation of Government.

3. Colonels Luckmun, Goorung, Teela, Bickram Sing, Tappah, Beemul Ali, Jurdeer Sing, Partinon Kover Ranajee, Srikishu Sohey and Soorat Tappah, are favorably mentioned by Captain Plowden, as well as Major-Captain Runoojal Sing, Tappah, Sonjun Sing, and Meerwan Sing, all of whom rendered active and excellent service.

4. Captain Plowden also mentions the name of Lieutenant Aiteram Bishtah, for his distinguished gallantry, he having cut down five of the Enemy.

5. My best thanks are due to Captain Plowden, for the sound and judicious advice which he gave regarding the disposition of the Troops, as well as to Captain Lane, in Military charge of Brigadier Junga Doje's Brigade, and to Lieutenants Francis, Gibb, Bogle, Sankey and Foote, attached to the Force, as also to Lieutenant Owen, late 19th N. I., who volunteered his services.

The Medical Officers, namely, Surgeons McClelland and Morton, and Assistant Surgeons Playfair and Gee, are favorably mentioned by Captain Plowden, as well as Mr. Forbes, C. S., and Sergeants Home and King, of the Bengal Artillery.

I have the honor to be,

SIR,

Your most obedt. Servant,

G. H. MACGREGOR,

Brigdr. Genl. and Mily. Commr.

FROM

CAPTAIN A. C. PLOWDEN,
In Military charge of a Division,
Goorkha Force.

TO

CAPTAIN MACANDREW,
Secy. to Mily Commissioner.

Camp before Lucknow, 11th March 1858.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to report, for the information of Brigadier General MacGregor, C. B., particulars of an action, in which the advanced Division of the Goorkha Force, under my Military charge, was engaged on the 5th Instant, against a Force of the Enemy amounting to 4,000 Men, under the Command of Nazim Mehndee Hossein, which resulted in a loss to the Rebels of nearly 600 killed, and the capture of 1 Gun, whilst the Casualties on our side were 1 killed and 16 wounded, two of the latter having since died.

2. Having received information that the Rebels had taken up a strong position on the Kandoo Nuddee, and had erected a battery by the side of the bridge, on the Lucknow road, for the purpose of disputing our passage; moreover, that they had advanced across the bridge, I proposed a plan of attack, which was approved of by General Khurruk Bahadoor, and successfully carried out.

3. The Division, consisting of the strength as per margin, advanced in quarter distance columns at deploying distances, five Regiments forming the first line, and two on either flank as a reserve.

4. On viewing the Enemy, who was posted in detached parties extending from our left to right front, I halted the columns and deployed into line. I was much deceived as to the nature of the ground between us and the Enemy; what at first appeared to the level, with a few fields of cultivation in front of the right brigades, afterwards

18 Guns.
7 Regts. of Infantry.
Aggregate Force 2,300.

proved to be deep ravines with bush jungle, though the ground in front of the left brigade was a plain, facing the Enemy's battery. At this point, our Guns opened. After a few rounds from the right, or Brigadier Run Sing Bahadoor's Brigade, which caused the Enemy in front to retire into the ravines, the advance was sounded. The right brigade had scarcely advanced fifty yards, when the Enemy opened a sharp fire of musketry, from a jungle on our right front. Presuming he was in greatest force in that direction, I requested Brigadier Run Sing Bahadoor to make an oblique movement in that direction, which at once brought him in contact with the Rebels. The Brigade rushed gallantly into the jungle with a loud cheer, formed a line of skirmishers, and forced the Rebels to make a rapid retreat. The Goorkhas were quite at home in this mode of warfare; their pursuits was so rapid through the ravines, that numbers of the Rebels were very soon overtaken, shot and cut down. Many instances of individual bravery on the part of the Goorkhas were brought to my notice; there were several who each cut down three and four of the Enemy. The pursuit was followed up for two miles, when the Enemy, having disappeared through a thick jungle, the "assembly" was sounded, and we formed our Camp on the Nuddee.

5. The part taken in the engagement by the left or Brigadier Junga Doje's Brigade, under the Military charge of Captain Lane, is described by that Officer, in a letter to my address, which together with one from Lieutenant Gibb, in charge of the batteries of the Division, are herewith annexed.

6. I have now the pleasure to record the meritorious services of the Nepalese Officers. General Kurruck Bahadoor displayed great coolness, and a generous confidence in my advice. Brigadier Run Sing Bahadoor, a smart and intelligent Officer, led his brigade with great coolness and spirit, ably assisted by the following Colonels of Regiments—Luchmun, Goorung, Klee Bahadoor Regiment; Teela Bickram Sing Tappah, "Roordoo Doje Regiment"; Beemul Ali, "Nia Gooruck" Regiment; and Captain-Major Runajul Sing Tappah, Commanding "Nursing Dull" Regiment; also Colonel Jusdeon Sing and Major Soojun Sing, Commanding Batteries. Captain Lane brings to my notice the services of Brigadier Junga Doje and the following Colonels Commanding Regiments in his Brigade, viz., Colonels Partimon Koer Ranajee, "Srinath Regiment," Srikrishn Soboy, "Jungamath" Regiment; and Somrut Tappah, "Shumshere Dull" Regiment; and Captain Meerwan Sing, Jungamath Regiment, who, together with the Non-Commissioned Officers and Men of the Division, merit the approbation of His Highness the Maha Rajah.

7. My best thanks are due to the British Officers attached to the Division, for the ready assistance I received from all in the field, and have great pleasure in submitting their names for favorable notice, viz., Captain Lane, in charge of Brigadier Junga Doje's Brigade; Lieutenants Francis, Gibb, in charge of the Batteries of the Division; Robertson, Bogle who, though attached to the rear Division, joined Lieutenant Gibb's Batteries; Lieutenant Owen, late 19th Regiment Native Infantry, and Saukey, Madras Engineers, and Lieutenant Foote, attached to the advanced Regiment of the Right Brigade; Surgeons McClelland, Morton, and Assistant Surgeons Playfair and Geo, were unremitting in their attention to the wounded, both in the field and subsequently.

8. I cannot conclude without offering my best thanks to Mr. Forbes, of the Civil Service, he was well to the front with a small party of Sowars; his intimate knowledge of the country we have passed through, and accurate information he gathered, have been of great service.

9. Brigadier Run Sing Bahadoor has brought to my notice the gallant conduct of Lieutenant Aiteram Bishtah, of the Boordoo Doje Regiment, who cut down five of the Enemy.

10. Lieutenant Gibb mentions, for favorable notice, the names of Sergeants Home and King, Bengal Artillery.

I have, &c.,

(Signed) A. PLOWDEN, Captain,
In Military charge 2nd Divn., Goorkha Force.

To

CAPTAIN PLOWDEN,
In Military charge, 2nd Division,
Goorkha Force.
Camp Hyderabad, March 8th 1858.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to furnish the following Report of the part taken by the Brigade, under the Command of Brigadier "Gunga Doje", to which I am attached in Military charge, during the action with the Enemy in the morning of the 5th Instant.

After passing "Musafir Khana" about 1½ mile, on emerging from some mango groves, upon an open plain, we perceived the Enemy in our front occupying the banks of the "Kandoo Nullah." The Brigade was formed into line, and the Guns, advancing, opened fire on the Enemy, which was replied to by 1 Gun in position on the opposite side of the Nullah, and a smart fire of Matchlockmen posted amongst the ravines on this side. The Gun was soon silenced by the excellent practice of our Guns under the immediate superintendence of Lieutenant Gibb.

The order for the general advance of the Brigade was then given, one Regiment being told off to remain in support of the Guns; the Brigade, taking ground to the left, slightly turned the Enemy's flank, and, advancing rapidly across some open ground under a heavy fire, at once became engaged with the Enemy amongst the ravines. From these they were soon driven with considerable loss across the Nullah into the heavy jungle on the opposite bank, and, closely pursued by our men, were shot and cut down in large numbers.

General Kurruck Bahadoor, seeing the Enemy in full flight, keeping two Companies for the protection of the Guns, granted permission to the remainder of the Regiment, in reserve, to join in the pursuit.

The pursuit was continued for some distance, when the men becoming much scattered from the denseness of the jungle, I deemed it expedient to advise the re-call being sounded.

The Troops, returning to the bridge on the Lucknow road, took possession of the Gun.

I beg to record the services of Brigadier "Junga Doje," of Colonel Partimon Koer Ranajee, "Commanding the Seereenath Regiment," of Colonel "Srikrishn Soboy," of the "Jungamath Regiment," of Colonel Soorut Tappah, of the "Shumseer Dull Regiment." I am desirous that their conduct, as well as that of all the Officers and Men under them, should be brought to the favorable notice of His Highness the Maha Rajah.

I especially wish to mention the zeal with which Captain Meerwan Sing, of the "Jungnath Regiment," led his men to the attack.

Lieutenants Francis and Gibb, each in their own department, afforded me every assistance, as did also Lieutenant Sankey, of the Madras Engineers.

My acknowledgements are also due to Lieutenant Owen, of the late 19th Native Infantry, who kindly volunteered his services, and rendered me valuable assistance.

Lieutenant Bogle, of the Bengal Artillery, who arrived from the Head Quarters Camp, during the engagement, did good service.

Doctors Morton and Playfair, were in constant attendance on the Brigade, and all their arrangements met with my entire approbation.

Before concluding, I wish to bring to the favorable notice of the Brigadier General, the good conduct of Serjeants Home and King, attached to the Guns of the Brigade, especially that of the former, through whose excellent practice the Enemy's Gun was so speedily silenced.

I am happy to report that, notwithstanding the heaviness of the Enemy's fire, not a single Casualty occurred in the Brigade.

I have, &c.,

(Signed) C. POWLETT LANE, Captain, in Mily. charge of 2nd Brigade, 2nd Divn., Goorkha Force.

To

CAPTAIN FLOWEN,
In Military charge of the Division,
of Nepalese Troops;
Commanded by Genl. Khurruck Bahadoor.
Camp Jugdispore, 6th March 1858.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to report, for the information of Brigadier General MacGregor, C. B., the proceedings of the Nepalese Light Field Batteries (strength as per margin) engaged in the action of yesterday at the Kandoo Nuddie.

The Batteries formed up in line in the centre at 1,000 yards, and came into action at a range of about 800 yards from the Enemy's position. After a few rounds of round shot and shrapnell, the Enemy's only Gun was silenced; after which the Infantry advanced rapidly.

Previously to the Infantry advancing, 4 Guns under Colonel Jasdeer Sing moved off to the right flank; owing to a deep dry Nullah, a little in front of the centre Guns, they could not be advanced further.

I hope you will bring to the notice of the Brigadier General, the efficient services of Colonel Jasdeer Sing and Major Soojum Sing, Commanding Batteries, and of all the Officers and Men under their respective Command; also the ready assistance given to the Nepalese Artillery, by Lieutenant A. Bogle, Bengal Artillery, and by Serjeants Home and King, of the Bengal Artillery, who laid their Guns very effectively; the former in particular, who, in two shots silenced the Enemy's Gun. A Return of Ordnance captured accompanies.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to forward, for the information of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General, copy of my letter No. 25, of the 11th Instant, to Lieutenant Prinsep, Detachment Staff, at Allypore, giving the particulars of an affair I had with the Enemy's Cavalry at Katchia Ghat, on the 11th Instant.

2. I earnestly beg to bring to the notice of Government, Local Lieutenant and Adjutant A. C. Hennessy, who was very severely wounded in the charge, and whose bravery was most conspicuous.

3. Nothing could exceed the steadiness of the men when retiring, and their bravery in the attack, those opposed to them being Irregular Cavalry, completely armed, and with every advantage in their favor.

4. The Enemy have not yet carried out their threat of advancing on this place, and I hope to be able to hold my position till the arrival of the Column under Major General Penny, three or four days hence, when, I believe, the Jat Horse will return to Allypore.

I have the honor to be,

SIR,

Your most obedt. Servant,

J. J. MURRAY, Captain,

FROM

CAPTAIN J. J. MURRAY,

Comdg. Jat Horse.

TO

LIEUT. PRINSEP,

Offg. Detachment Staff, Allypore.

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to report, for the information of Major Edd, Commanding at Allypore, that, having received information last night of the arrival of Nizamulla Khan at Katchia Ghat, with 5 Guns and 1,000 Cavalry and Infantry, and further that Walleedul Khan, thus re-inforced, intended to cross over with his whole Force this morning, I considered it advisable to make a re-advancement towards the Ghat, to watch the movements, and, as far as practicable, ascertain the actual strength of the Enemy.

Accordingly, this morning, I took with me 200 Horse, and, on approaching the banks of the river, the Enemy, who were on the alert, turned out in force, having at least 600 Cavalry (Irregulars), 2,000 drilled Infantry, and 5 Field Guns, besides two or three others in position.

Having satisfied myself as to their strength, and observing no preparations for crossing over, I decided on returning at once to Kashgunge; but had scarcely moved off, when, to my great surprise, I saw a strong part of their Cavalry crossing the river immediately opposite the Ghat, and where I had been informed it was not fordable, under cover of their Field Guns. I continued to retire in perfect order, not wishing to engage with the Enemy so near their main body. They however advanced rapidly, and a mile on this side of Rungpore pressed so closely on my Column, that I considered it necessary to charge them, and did so successfully, driving them to that village, beyond which I did not deem it prudent to follow them.

We killed seven of the Enemy, and completely checked their further advance.

I was thus enabled to continue my march unmolested to Sarun, where I halted during the day. In the charge, I regret to say that that most gallant young Officer, Lieutenant and Adjutant Hennessy, received three very severe sword cuts in the right arm, and which will deprive me of his valuable services for sometime, and two Sowars of the Jat Horse were killed. There Horses are also missing.

The advanced portion of the Enemy's Cavalry thus driven back, numbered about 200, and came on with great boldness, well knowing that my men were newly raised and without fire arms.

It appears that the Enemy, being checked in their advance in the direction, subsequently, with a strong Force, proceeded to the village of Arlaur, 2 miles above the Ghat, where Darah Sing Thakoor has a strong Ghurrie, defended by 250 Armed followers with a Gun. The Enemy attacked the place, but were unsuccessful, and recrossed the river in the afternoon, taking with them a Gun, which had been left outside the Ghurrie.

When they retired, Darah Sing and his Followers left the place, and are now in Sarun. The Enemy lost a number of Men, and the Thakoor one or two.

I have the honor to be,

SIR,

Your most obedt. Servant,

Rowcroft, Commanding Sarun Field Force, detailing the particulars of the signal victory obtained on the 5th Instant, by the Troops under his Command, over a Rebel force greatly outnumbering them.

Fully concurring in the praise bestowed by Colonel Rowcroft on Captain Sotheby, R. N., Commanding the Naval Brigade of Her Majesty's Ship Pearl; on Major Richardson, and Captain Chapman, and the Bengal Yeomanry Cavalry led by them; on Colonel Byroon Sing Koor and Major-Captain Sewuckram Thappa, and in his acknowledgment of the good services of the Officers and Men of all arms under his orders, the Governor General further desires to place on record his full appreciation of the admirable man-mer in which they were Commanded in this action by Colonel Roweroft himself.

By Order of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General.

R. J. H. BIRCH, Colonel,
Secy. to the Govt of India,
with the Governor General.

Camp Amorah, 6th March 1858.

On the signal and complete defeat yesterday of the Enemy, who had moved up in great force, from Belwa, Fyzabad, and Nawabgunge, Colonel Roweroft, Commanding the Field Force, offers, with great pleasure, his best thanks and congratulations to all the Officers and Men of the Pearl's Naval Brigade, under the Command of Captain Sotheby, R. N.; the Bengal Yeomanry Cavalry under Major Richardson; Gorucknath and Bunuk Goorkha Regiments, under Military charge of Captains Barclay and Brooks, with Captain MacGregor attached; to Colonel Byroop Singh Koor, and Major-Captain Sewukram Thappa, Goorkha Commandants; Lieutenant Turnour, R. N., in charge of the Naval Artillery; Lieutenants Ratcliffe and Grant, R. N., in charge of the Naval Column; Lieutenant Pym, R. N., in charge of Marine skirmishers, aided by a party of Rifles from the Naval Column under Lieutenant Ingles; Lieutenant Burton, in charge of Sikh skirmishers—all rendered their usual most active and excellent services. The charges of the Yeomanry Cavalry were gallant and most effective; early in the action that of the Right Squadron, under Captain Chapman, ordered and directed by Colonel Roweroft, was carried out with a rapid and telling effect, driving in the left of the Enemy, killing great numbers, turning and shaking their centre. The advance of the Naval Brigade and Gorucknath Regiment, ordered at the same time, drove the whole line of the Enemy into full retreat, compelling them to abandon their Guns; and here a Detachment of 20 Troopers, Yeomanry Cavalry, with Cornets Copland and Prinsep, ordered from the Right Squadron to the rear of Naval Guns, to cover and protect them, did excellent and useful service; the combined movements and advance of all the Troops leading to the capture of 7 of the Enemy's Guns. Shortly before this movement, Colonel Roweroft received a Report from Major Richardson, Commanding Left Squadron on the left, that the Enemy, in great force, had got round our left rear, threatening our Camp. Orders were sent to Major Richardson, with a Troop of his whole Squadron, to attack and clear out the Enemy most gallantly and effectually carried out by Major Richardson and his Squadron, actively aided by a few Goorkha Companies under Captain Brooks. Major Richardson reports that he received great assistance from Cornets Kloor and Troup, who were his Orderly Officers. Colonel Roweroft's best thanks are also due to Captain Morgan, Field Force Staff; and to Hon'ble V. A. Montague, his Acting A. D. C. for their ready and zealous services; also to Dra. Shore and Dickenson, of the Naval Brigade, and to Dr. J. W. R. Ainsbury, of the Bengal Yeomanry Cavalry, and to Revd. W. Williams, Naval Chaplain, present in the field.

The Field Force moved out about 7½ A. M., took up a position and formed line a little to the West of the Village of "Amorah" and our Camp, when the bugle calls of the Enemy were soon heard, and their line seen over-lapping our flanks. The action commenced at 8½ A. M. and closed 12½ P. M., in four hours; the Enemy, reported to be 4,000 Sepoys of the 1st, 10th, 58th, 56th, 5th Gwalior Contingent, and 2nd Oude Police Corps, 700 strong 10,000 Irregulars, 300 Sowars and 9 Guns, being beaten at all points pursued 7 miles and completely routed with heavy loss of 7 Guns with limbers and ammunition, and 500 killed and wounded. This most successful action by the Field Force may be considered to have saved Goruckpore from a second immediate rebellion.

Colonel Roweroft is very happy that our Casualty List is not heavy, though he has to regret the loss of Second Master Mr. John Fowler, R. N., of the Pearl, killed in action by a round shot.

The above ordered to be read and explained to Regiments and Detachments at a parade ordered for that purpose.

No. 168.

To
COLONEL R. J. H. BIRCH, C. B.,
Military Secretary,
with the Right Hon'ble the Gov. Genl.,
Allahabad.
Camp Amorah, 9 miles from Belwa, opposite Fyzabad, the 6th March 1858.

SIR,
I HAVE the honor to acquaint you for the information of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General, on the 4th Instant, in the evening and during the night, I received reports that the Enemy were preparing in great force with several Guns to move on us from Belwa, Fyzabad and Nawabgunge. The Camp, Baggage, &c., was at once struck, and packed that night. About 7-30 the next morning, the 5th Instant, the Field Force as per margin, moved out of Camp, and I took up a position and formed line a little to the West of the village of Amorah and the Camp; the Naval Brigade and Guns in the centre across the road, the two Goorkha Regiments on the right and left of the Naval Brigade, the Sikh Detachment on the left of the Goorkhas, and the Yeomanry Cavalry, one Squadron on the right, and one on the left of my line. I rode forward a little in advance to meet a Cavalry Patrol. From the Officer's Report, I at first thought it was a party of the Enemy sent into the villages for plunder, but I immediately heard the bugles of the Enemy sounding a halt, and then the advance. I doubled the strength of the patrol, and ordered the Officer to obtain further information, and to be careful not to commit his Patrol by going into any village.

They soon returned, the Officer reporting the Enemy to be advancing in great force. Our line remained steady in position, anxiously awaiting the moment for attacking the Enemy.

The bugle sounds neared on our line, and the Enemy soon showed themselves in great force, their line extending right and left, over-lapping our flanks. Our Guns opened from the centre, and the Enemy commenced a heavy and rapid cannonade from several Guns on our line. I ordered out the skirmishers and the whole line to advance. I received a Report from Major Richardson, Commanding left Squadron, that the Enemy in force were pushing round my left rear. I ordered him to detach a Troop, or if necessary with the Squadron, to attack and clear out the Enemy, but not to leave my left for any time. This was gallantly and effectually carried out by Major Richardson and his Squadron, zealously and actively aided by Captain Brooks, with a party of Goorkhas, cutting up and killing a number of the Enemy. Here Captain Jenkins and Cornet Durnford had their Horses shot, and killed under them. Major Richardson reports that he received great assistance from Cornets Kloor and Troup, his Orderly Officers.

2. I saw there was no time to be lost, and that a rapid and decisive blow must be struck. Leaving orders for the Guns to continue the advance and fire, and taking a party of Rifles of 20 men from the Naval Column, with Lieutenant Ingles, R. N., to re-inforce the Marine skirmishers, I rode on to the right Squadron, and ordered Captain Chapman to advance rapidly with his Squadron, inclining to the right, and bringing up his right shoulders to charge the Enemy's Sowars and Infantry, hoping it would also shake their centre. At the same time I sent an Orderly Trooper with an order to the Gorucknath Goorkha Regiment, on the right of the Naval Brigade, to advance at the charge, and the Goorkhas moved gallantly forward. The result of this movement was soon apparent. I saw the left of the Enemy hesitating, and some pressing towards their centre, the Sowars in rapid retreat.

Down came the Yeomanry Cavalry at a charging pace, well and steadily together, on the moving masses of Infantry, routing them and cutting down and killing great numbers, upwards of 90 reported. The whole left of the Enemy soon gave way. I galloped up to the Yeomanry Cavalry, and thanked Captain Chapman and the Squadron, for their good gallant movement and charge, and ordered Captain Chapman to move towards the left, to threaten the Enemy's centre. The combined movement and gallant bearing of the Troops, the steady advance of the Naval Brigade, soon shattered the whole line of the Enemy. They abandoned their Guns and were in full retreat, and our gallant Troops captured 7 Guns with limbers and ammunition. When ordering the right Squadron to advance, I detached a party of twenty Troopers to the rear of the naval Guns to cover and protect them, and this party, under Acting Cornets Copland and Prinsep, by their gallant and excellent service aided in capturing some of the Guns.

3. The pursuit now commenced for 7 miles to near Belwa, the Enemy having to be driven out of topes and villages as we advanced.

A short distance from Belwa, the Enemy made a short stand with a large force, keeping up an effective fire on us, from a heavy Gun; and here I have to regret the loss of Acting Second Master Mr. John Fowler, R. N., of the Pearl, killed by a round shot, also Private Poiroonoo Singh, of the Gorucknath Regiment, mortally struck by a round shot shattering his chest, (since dead.) The effective fire of our Guns, the advance of our Troops, and the Right Squadron moving forward to be ready for a charge, soon drove the Enemy out of sight into the heavy jungle and woods.

4. After advancing about a mile further, and halting a short time, I prepared for returning to Camp. The Troops began to feel the fatigue and heat, and the Goorkha Troops were much distressed with the heat, and marching through much heavy ground and cultivation.

5. My best and warmest thanks are due to Captain Sotheby, R. N., Commanding the Naval Brigade of the Pearl, and to the Officers and Seamen who, with their Guns, were my main stay in the action, and most valuable to me at all times; also to Major Richardson, Commanding, and to Captain Chapman, Commanding Right Squadron, and to the Officers and Men of the Bengal Yeomanry Cavalry, whose services have been most useful to me—always active, ready and willing for any duty ordered. Also to Captains Larelay, 68th Regiment Native Infantry, and Brooks, 1st Light Cavalry, in Military charge of the two Goorkha Regiments, with Captain MacGregor, 9th Light Cavalry, attached, who were zealous and forward in their duties; and the Commandants, Colonel Byroop Singh Koor, and Major Captain Senukram Thappah, always bravely urging on their men; also to those zealous active Officers, Lieutenant Turnour, R. N., in charge of Naval Artillery, Lieutenants Radcliffe, R. N., and Grant, R. N., in charge of Naval Column, and to Lieutenant Pym, R. N., with his gallant active Marine skirmishers, and to Lieutenant Ingles, R. N., with the useful and valuable Riflemen of the Naval Column, and to Lieutenant Burton, 40th Regiment Native Infantry, with his brave ready Sikh skirmishers, who reports Havildar Kurram Singh, Bengal Police Battalion, for his conspicuous good conduct and gallant bearing.

6. My best thanks are also due to Captain Morgan, 22nd Regiment Native Infantry, Field Force Staff, and to the Hon'ble V. A. Montague, R. N., my acting Aide-de-Camp, for their zealous ready services in the field. Also to Doctors Shore and Dickenson of the Naval Brigade, Doctor J. W. R. Ainsbury, Bengal Yeomanry Cavalry, ready and active for any thing required in their department; as also to Doctor Hilson, in Medical charge of the Barruk Regiment, and to Revd. Mr. Williams, Naval Chaplain present, in the field. Also to Deputy Magistrate Shokh Karroodun, present in the field, and rendering all the assistance in his power. Lieutenant Grant, R. N., and Midshipman Lord Charles Scott and Gunner W. M. Goodfellow, Seaman, with a few Sailors, quickly and gallantly turned one of the captured Guns on the Enemy, firing 3 rounds of grape.

7. The action commenced at 8-30 A. M., and closed at 12-30 P. M. In four hours the Enemy, their forces reported to be 4,000 Sepoys, 14,000 Irregulars, 300 Sowars and 8 Guns, were completely defeated and driven into rapid retreat, with the severe loss of 7 Guns and some 500 men killed and wounded. The Sepoys were of the 1st, 10th, 53rd and 56th Regiments Native Infantry, 5th Regiment Owalior Contingent, and 2nd Oude Police Battalion, 700 strong. The other Regiments had lately been completed to 500 and 600 strong. The Nazim Mahomed Hossen and Rajahs of Gonda and Churdah and other Chiefs, were present in the field on Elephants, but are said soon to have fled in Palankeona.

8. I am happy to report our Casualty List not heavy. I beg to attach it, also a list of Guns, Limbers and ammunition captured.

9. This most successful action by the Field Force, so greatly outnumbered by the Enemy in Men and Guns, may be considered to have saved Goruckpore a second immediate rebellion, the Baluhs and Zemindars and Villages in neighbourhood being ready to rise to a formidable extent.

10. I beg earnestly to recommend all the Officers and Men of the different arms in action at the battle of Amarah, to the most favorable consideration of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General Viscount Canning.

I have the honor to be,

Legislative Council of India.

The 27th March 1858.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council of India, received the assent of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General on the 19th March 1858, (communicated to the Legislative Council on the 27th Idem), and is hereby promulgated for general information :—

ACT No. X OF 1858.

An Act to authorize the confiscation of Villages, the imposition of fines, and the forfeiture of certain offices in cases of rebellion and other crimes committed by Inhabitants of Villages or by members of tribes; and also to provide for the punishment of proprietors of land who neglect to assist in the suppression of rebellion or in the apprehension of rebels, mutineers, or deserters.

WHEREAS it is expedient to authorize the confiscation of Villages, the imposition of fines, and the forfeiture of certain offices in cases of rebellion and other crimes committed by Inhabitants of Villages or by members of tribes; and also to provide for the punishment of proprietors of land who neglect to assist in the suppression of rebellion or in the apprehension of rebels, mutineers, and deserters; it is enacted as follows :—

I. If it shall be proved to the satisfaction of a Magistrate that the Inhabitants of any Village within his jurisdiction, or any large number of the Inhabitants of such Village, have since the 1st day of May 1857 been guilty of rebellion, or of waging war against the State, or of murder, or of any of the offences specified in Section 11 Act XVI of 1857, although the individual offenders cannot be identified; or if it shall be proved to the satisfaction of a Magistrate that any European or American has been murdered or been subjected to any violent personal outrage in any such Village, and it shall not be proved to the satisfaction of the Magistrate that the Inhabitants of such Village used all the means in their power to prevent the commission of the offence; it shall be lawful for the Magistrate to impose a fine upon the Inhabitants of such Village, or upon any specified class of the Inhabitants of such Village; the amount of the fine to be fixed with reference to the means of the Inhabitants or class of Inhabitants, and the nature of the offence committed. If the owner or owners of the Village shall not prove to the satisfaction of the Magistrate that he or they used all the means in his or their power to prevent the commission of the offence, the Magistrate may confiscate the Village, either in lieu of, or in addition to, the imposition of such fine upon the Inhabitants. In like manner, if any hereditary Village Officer employed in the collection of the Land Revenue or in the Police in such Village shall not prove to the satisfaction of a Magistrate that he used all the means in his power to prevent the commission of the offence, the Magistrate may declare the hereditary office to be forfeited, and may confiscate any land or rights held by him in virtue of such office.

II. If it shall be proved to the satisfaction of a Magistrate that any members of a particular tribe have since the said 1st day of May 1857 been guilty of any of the above-mentioned offences within the limits of his jurisdiction, although the individual offenders cannot be identified, it shall be lawful for the Magistrate to impose a fine upon all the members of the tribe residing at or near the place where the offence was committed, or from which the offenders came.

III. It shall also be lawful for a Magistrate to impose a fine upon the inhabitants of any Village within his jurisdiction, if it shall be proved to his satisfaction that, at any time after the passing of this Act, any rebel, mutineer, or deserter, or any person proclaimed by Government as a rebel, or for whose apprehension a reward shall have been publicly offered, or any person who shall have escaped from jail or other custody whilst under sentence of imprisonment or under trial for any offence mentioned in Section 11 Act V of 1858 (for the punishment of certain offenders who have escaped from jail and of persons who shall knowingly harbour such offenders), has been knowingly harboured or concealed within such Village; or that any arms or other property belonging to the East India Company have been knowingly concealed therein.

IV. The Magistrate may exempt from liability to pay any portion of a fine imposed under the provisions of this Act, any person whom he shall consider entitled to such exemption in consequence of his having delivered up or given such information as shall have led or shall be calculated to lead to the apprehension and conviction of any rebel, mutineer, or deserter, or other person guilty of any of the offences mentioned in Section 1 of this Act, or to the recovery of any arms or property belonging to the East India Company, or for any other reason which the Magistrate may deem sufficient.

Punishment for offences committed by members of tribes.

Punishment for harbouring certain offenders, and for concealing government property in any Village.

Preamble.

Punishment for certain offences committed by Inhabitants of Villages.

Magistrate may exempt certain persons from payment of fine.

V. If any Zemindar or other proprietor of land, when duly called upon by the Magistrate or by a Darogah or District Police Officer to render assistance in the suppression of rebellion or the arrest of rebels, mutineers, or deserters, shall refuse or neglect to use all the means in his power for rendering such assistance, the Magistrate, on proof of such refusal or neglect, may impose a fine on the person so offending, or may confiscate his estate or interest in the land.

Punishment for proprietors of land refusing or neglecting to aid in the suppression of rebellion, &c.

VI. Whenever a Magistrate shall order the confiscation of a Village, or of any land or rights, or of any estate or interest in land, or the imposition of a fine under this Act, he shall report his proceedings to the Commissioner. The Commissioner may either confirm or modify or annul the order of the Magistrate as he may think fit: provided that he shall not make any order which the Magistrate could not have made.

Magistrate to report his proceedings to the Commissioner for confirmation or modification.

VII. When any fine is imposed under this Act, upon the Inhabitants of a Village or members of a tribe, the amount shall be assessed upon the Inhabitants of the Village or members of the tribe (as the case may be) by a panchayat appointed by the Magistrate, or in such other mode as the Magistrate may direct; and the assessment when approved by the Magistrate shall be final. Notice of the assessment, and of the time fixed by the Magistrate for the payment thereof, shall be given by affixing the same in some conspicuous place in the Village to which the order relates or where the persons liable to the fine reside.

Assessment of fines.

VIII. If the full amount assessed be not paid within the time fixed by the Magistrate, which shall not be less than thirty days from the date of the assessment, the amounts assessed may be levied by order of the Magistrate by distress and sale of the moveable property of the parties liable for the same; and in case no sufficient moveable property shall be found within the Village, any house or immoveable property and any rent-free or other saleable tenure belonging to the defaulter may be sold by order of the Magistrate for the purpose of realizing the amount due from him. In the case of a fine imposed on the Inhabitants of a Village, the Magistrate may direct the Collector to sell the Village for the amount of the assessment remaining unpaid, unless the owner or owners of the Village shall pay such amount. The sale shall be subject to all the rules applicable to sales for the recovery of arrears of Revenue, save that it shall not in any case be necessary to obtain the sanction of the Sudder Board of Revenue or Board of Revenue to such sale. In the event of such sale taking place, or of the owner or owners making good the arrears of assessment to save the Village from sale, he or they may recover the arrears from the parties liable for the same in the same manner in which arrears of Rent may be recovered. Provided that, if the sum realized by the sale fall short of the arrears due, the owner or owners of the Village shall not recover more than the amount realized by the sale.

Recovery of fines.

IX. Any confiscation of a Village under Section I of this Act shall have the effect of cancelling all under-tenures in the Village; and shall authorize the ejectment of all tenants or cultivators of land therein; and shall also have the effect of availing all incumbrances of the whole or any part of the Village which shall have been created after the date of the commission of the offence mentioned in the Magistrate's order, and all incumbrances created before the date of the commission of the offence if the incumbrancer shall have been in possession at the time, and also all incumbrances made after the passing of this Act unless the same shall have been made and registered three months before the commission of the offence or the day specified in the Magistrate's order as the date of the commission of the offence: and every sale of a Village under this Act shall have the same effect as a confiscation, except that it shall cancel such under-tenures only as belong to persons who have made default in payment of the amount assessed upon them.

Effect of confiscation or sale.

X. All the provisions of this Act, which authorize the imposition and assessment of a fine upon the Inhabitants of a Village, shall extend to the Inhabitants of any Mohalla or Division of a City or Town; and the amount of any fine imposed under this Section, if not paid, shall be levied by order of the Magistrate by distress and sale of the moveable property of the parties liable for the same; and in case no sufficient moveable property shall be found within the Mohalla or Division, any house or immoveable property and any rent-free or other saleable tenure belonging to the defaulter may be sold by order of the Magistrate for the purpose of realizing the amount.

Act to extend to Inhabitants of Divisions of Cities or Towns.

XI. Any fine imposed under Section V of this Act may be recovered in the manner above prescribed for the recovery of assessments, or by sale of the estate of the person liable to the fine; and such sale shall be made by the Collector on the requisition of the Magistrate, and shall be subject to all the rules applicable to the sale of estates for demands recoverable by the same process as arrears of Revenue, save that it shall not in any case be necessary to obtain the sanction of the Sudder Board of Revenue or Board of Revenue to such sale.

Recovery of fines imposed on proprietors of land under Section V.

XII. No appeal shall lie from any order passed by a Magistrate in carrying out the provisions of this Act; but, except as otherwise provided, all orders and proceedings of the Magistrate shall be subject to the revision and control of the Commissioner, whose order shall be final.

No appeal; but order of Magistrate may be revised by the Commissioner.

XIII. If the Governor General in Council or the Executive Government shall see fit to remit any confiscation under this Act, all persons affected by such confiscation shall be restored to their rights as if no such confiscation had ever taken place.

CECIL BEADON,
Secy. to the Govt. of India.

No. 13.

Fort William, Financial Department.

The 26th March 1858.

Notifications.—The following Extract from the Resolution passed by the Right Hon'ble the Governor General in Council No. 5126, dated the 4th December 1857, is published for general information:—

Para. 1. The Right Hon'ble the Governor General in Council remarks, that the Hon'ble Court, in their Despatch of the 17th June 1856, called the attention of this Government to various important questions connected with the comparative condition of the Indian Finances, past and prospective, the causes of a continued increase of charge, the most suitable means of reducing the expenditure within the income, and the importance of adopting measures for restraining the Offices of Account at the Subordinate Presidencies, in order that a succession of Officers conversant with the business of Accounts to the higher posts in the Department might be secured, and appointments to vacancies regulated accordingly.

2. This Government, in communicating to the Hon'ble Court the result of its deliberations on the several points adverted to, recommended that, if the attempt that was then being made to introduce the Bengal system of Account at the other Presidencies should be successful, the Offices of Account (including the Offices of Sub-Treasurer and Civil Auditor) at all the Presidencies be formed into a separate Department under the Government of India, to which all nomination shall be made by the Governor General in Council, and in which an interchange of the Officers of the several Governments shall be permitted whenever occasion may require, it being observed that the Officers of the Department under such a system would obtain fair promotion in the Department, and that it would be more likely than any other to ensure a general uniformity in the Accounts.

8. The plan has been approved of by the Hon'ble Court, and as the system of Accounts at all the Presidencies has already been ordered to be assimilated, it is to be considered in what manner the changes now sanctioned may best be carried out.

9. The object in view being to secure at all times a succession to the higher Offices of Account (including Treasury Account and Audit) of persons especially trained for the duties, and thoroughly conversant with this branch of public business, who shall be qualified to be drafted as occasion may require to the several Presidencies, the Governor General in Council is of opinion, that it is necessary that the prospect of remuneration should be somewhat better than in the general line of the Service, and that the salaries should be so graduated as to give a fair average of promotion, so as to ensure as far as possible, that those entering the Department should continue in it.

10. His Lordship in Council is also of opinion, that it is necessary that it should be distinctly understood, that Covenanted Officers who may enter the Department in future, will (as a rule) be expected to remain in it during their whole service; and that it should be ascertained by the Local Governments in giving effect to these orders, whether the Officers now in the Department are willing to remain in it, and that, if any Officer should not be willing to remain in it, the name of such Officer should be reported for the information of the Governor General in Council.

11. The qualifications specially needed in the Officers composing a General Department of Account and Finance in India, in addition to the ordinary acquirements of proficiency in Book-keeping and the science of Account, are the knowledge of Political Economy in its application to this country, and a practical acquaintance with the habits of the people, and the working of the Revenue systems of the country.

12. Looking upon Mofussil experience and early contact with the people as an essential qualification, under ordinary circumstances, for the successful management of public business in this country, his Lordship in Council resolves that no Officer shall be permitted to enter the General Department of Account under five years' standing, when a young Officer may be expected to have gained sufficient experience for the purposes of the Department, especially if he has employed his time with the intention of entering it.

13. Junior Civil Servants will be allowed to register their applications for employment in the General Department of Account, after the above-mentioned period of Service, as vacancies occur, when the applicants will be subjected to an examination in Book-keeping, the working of the Revenue system of the Presidency to which they belong, and the management of District Treasuries; and the examination papers, together with Reports from the Local Governments on the general aptitude for business of the several Candidates, will be forwarded for the consideration of the Governor General in Council, on the understanding that the Officer who appears best qualified for the duties of the Department will, as a rule, be selected, but that in cases of equality, regard will be had to the number of Officers previously taken into the Department from the several Presidencies.

14. When once the Department has been entered, the Officers will be expected to remain in it throughout their service. They will be transferred from Presidency to Presidency at intervals of not less than two years, the conveniences of parties being consulted as much as possible, but changes will be so regulated that Officers may acquire experience successively of all parts of the country before arriving at the higher grades.

15. Promotions will be regulated with due regard to seniority and merit, mere seniority not being in any case held to give a title to promotion.

16. As difficulty may arise in connection with the provision of furloughs and absence on Medical Certificate, His Lordship in Council thinks the difficulty can best be met by temporary promotions and the admission of young men on probation to succeed to permanent appointments on the occasion of regular vacancies.

17. His Lordship in Council considers that the appointments of Accountant and Civil Auditor in the Punjab, at present held by Uncovenanted Officers, ought to be placed on a higher footing, and that as a general rule, they should be held by Covenanted Officers. He thinks that they are of sufficient importance to require such a change, and that the measure can be effected not only without additional expense, but with a saving to Government, and without detriment to the interests of the Department if the following scale of salaries, graduated with reference to the responsibilities of the several appointments, is adopted; incumbents being allowed to retain the salaries now drawn by them so long as they remain in their present appointments.

	Present Salaries.	Proposed Salaries.

Assistant to Accountant North-Western Provinces	200	Ditto.
Total	43,399	40,900
Deduct proposed	40,900
Saving per annum	2,499

18. His Lordship in Council has attached the largest salary to the appointment of Accountant General to the Government of India, because it is by far the most important of the whole. The business in it is heavier and more complex than in any other. The Accountant General has the supervision of all Loan transactions; he has a larger number of Treasuries, and a greater mass of Military Accounts than either of the other Accountants General, and he has in addition, considerably heavier responsibilities as a Member of the Calcutta Mint Committee, and a Director of the Bank of Bengal.

19. On somewhat similar grounds His Lordship in Council has assigned a higher scale of pay to the Accountants General at Madras and Bombay than to the Accountants of Bengal and the N. W. Provinces, who have less to do with Loan transactions than the Accountants General at Madras and Bombay, and have no concern with Military Accounts or with Mint and Bank arrangements.

20. For the Sub-Treasurer at Calcutta, His Lordship in Council has fixed Rupees 3,000 a month, with reference to the enormous amount of his receipts and disbursements, and the heavy pecuniary responsibilities that are in consequence thrown upon him.

21. For the rest, he believes that the Salaries proposed are in fair proportion to the work and responsibilities of the several appointments; but on this point His Lordship in Council will be able to form a better opinion after reference to Mr. Ricketts, whose enquiries into the work of the Department must by this time have been completed, and from whom an opinion will be obtained as to the salaries to be allotted to the several appointments, with reference specially to the objects the Hon'ble Court have in view in sanctioning the formation of a General Department of Account, and the impossibility of securing the services of fitting men, unless some more than ordinary inducement to enter the Department is held out to them in the way of salary.

22. His Lordship in Council does not consider it desirable, that the salary of any appointment in the General Department of Account, to be held by a Covenanted Officer, should be less than Rupees 1,000 a month, because the services of a qualified Civilian cannot be expected to be secured for less, and because he believes that the duties of the 2nd Assistants to the Accountants General at Madras and Bombay may very well be entrusted to Uncovenanted Servants. It is important that the 2nd Assistant to the Accountant General to the Government of India should be a Covenanted Officer, in order to give such an Officer entering the Department a knowledge of the system under which the Loan transactions of the Government are conducted.

23. His Lordship in Council desires that the transfer of the Uncovenanted Officers in the General Department of Account, from one Presidency to another, be regulated on the same sort of principle as is above provided for Covenanted Officers.

BRIGDR. GENL. G. H. MACGREGOR, C. B.,
Military Commissioner,

THE SECY. TO THE GOVERNMENT,
with the Governor General,
Foreign Department, Allahabad.

Camp before Lucknow, 12th March 1858.

IN forwarding, for the information of the Hon'ble the Governor General, the Report of Captain Plowden, the British Officer in Military charge of the advanced Division of Maha Rajah Bahadur's Army, under General Khurruck Bahadur, of an action which took place on the 5th instant at the Kundoo Nuddee, between the British and the Rebel Nazim Mehmed Hossein, resulting in the capture of the Enemy's only Gun, the loss to him of nearly 600 killed, with casualties to the extent only of 1 killed and 16 wounded on our part, I have the honor to bring to the notice of His Lordship in Council, the extreme gallantry and good conduct of the Officers and Men engaged.

2. I would particularly bring to the notice of His Lordship in Council, the coolness and good management of General Khurruck Bahadur, who, in most difficult ground, so admirably disposed his troops, as to secure the splendid result above mentioned. To Brigadiers Run Sing and Junga Doje, my best thanks are due, and they will doubtless merit the approbation of Government.

3. Colonels Luckmun, Goorung, Teela, Bickram Sing, Tappah, Beemul Ali, Jurdar Sing, Partimon Kover Ramjee, Srikishu Sohy and Gauru Tappah, are favorably mentioned by Captain Plowden, as well as Major-Captain Ramooj Sing Tappah, Soojun Sing, and Meerwan Sing, all of whom rendered active and excellent service.

4. Captain Plowden also mentions the name of Lieutenant Aiteram Bishtah, for his distinguished gallantry, he having cut down five of the Enemy.

5. My best thanks are due to Captain Plowden, for the sound and judicious advice which he gave regarding the disposition of the Troops, as well as to Captain Lane, in Military charge of Brigadier Junga Doje's Brigade, and to Lieutenants Francis, Gibb, Bogle, Sankey and Foote, attached to the Force, as also to Lieutenant Owen, late 19th N. I., who volunteered his services.

The Medical Officers, namely, Surgeons McClelland and Morton, and Assistant Surgeons Playfair and Gee, are favorably mentioned by Captain Plowden, as well as Mr. Forbes, C. S., and Sergeants Home and King, of the Bengal Artillery.

I have the honor to be,

SIR,

Your most obedt. Servant,

G. H. MACGREGOR,

Brigdr. Genl. and Mily. Commr.

FROM

CAPTAIN A. C. PLOWDEN,
In Military charge of a Division,
Goorkha Force.

TO

CAPTAIN MACANDREW,
Secy. to Mily. Commissioner,
Camp before Lucknow, 11th March 1858.

SIR,

1. I HAVE the honor to report, for the information of Brigadier General MacGregor, C. B., particulars of an action, in which the advanced Division of the Goorkha Force, under my Military charge, was engaged on the 5th instant, against a Force of the Enemy amounting to 4,000 Men, under the Command of Nazim Mehmed Hossein, which resulted in a loss to the Rebels of nearly 600 killed, and the capture of 1 Gun, whilst the Casualties on our side were 1 killed and 16 wounded, two of the latter having since died.

2. Having received information that the Rebels had taken up a strong position on the Kundoo Nuddee, and had erected a battery by the side of the bridge, on the Lucknow road, for the purpose of disputing our passage; moreover, that they had advanced across the bridge, I proposed a plan of attack, which was approved of by General Khurruck Bahadur, and successfully carried out.

3. The Division, consisting of the strength as per margin, advanced in quarter distance columns at deploying distances, five Regiments forming the first line, and two on either flank as a reserve.

4. On viewing the Enemy, who was posted in detached parties extending from our left to right front, I halted the columns and deployed into line. I was much deceived as to the nature of the ground between us and the Enemy; what at first appeared to be level, with a few fields of cultivation in front of the right brigades, afterwards proved to be deep ravines with lush jungle, though the ground in front of the left brigade was a plain, facing the Enemy's battery. At this point, our Guns opened. After a few rounds from the right, or Brigadier Run Sing Bahadur's Brigade, which caused the Enemy in front to retire into the ravines, the advance was sounded. The right brigade had scarcely advanced fifty yards, when the Enemy opened a sharp fire of musketry, from a jungle on our right front. Presuming he was in greatest force in that direction, I requested Brigadier Run Sing Bahadur to make an oblique movement in that direction, which at once brought him in contact with the Rebels. The Brigade rushed gallantly into the jungle with a loud cheer, formed a line of skirmishers, and forced the Rebels to make a rapid retreat. The Goorkhas were quite at home in this mode of warfare; their pursuits was so rapid through the ravines, that numbers of the Rebels were very soon overtaken, shot and cut down. Many instances of individual bravery on the part of the Goorkhas were brought to my notice; there were several who each cut down three and four of the Enemy. The pursuit was followed up for two miles, when the Enemy, having disappeared through a thick jungle, the "assembly" was sounded, and we formed our Camp on the Nuddee.

5. The part taken in the engagement by the left or Brigadier Junga Doje's Brigade, under the 13 Guns.

7 Regts. of Infantry.
Aggregate Force 3,500.

Military charge of Captain Lane, is described by that Officer, in a letter to my address, which together with one from Lieutenant Gibb, in charge of the batteries of the Division, are herewith annexed.

6. I have now the pleasure to record the meritorious services of the Nepalese Officers. General Kurruck Bahadoor displayed great coolness, and a generous confidence in my advice. Brigadier Run Sing Bahadoor, a smart and intelligent Officer, led his brigade with great coolness and spirit, ably assisted by the following Colonels of Regiments—Lachman, Goorung, Kisee Bahadoor Regiment; Teela Bickram Sing Tappah, "Roordoo Doje Regiment"; Beemul Alie, "Nia Gooruck" Regiment; and Captain-Major Runojal Sing Tappah, Commanding "Nursing Dull" Regiment; also Colonel Jusdeen Sing and Major Soojan Sing, Commanding Batteries. Captain Lane brings to my notice the services of Brigadier Junga Doje and the following Colonels Commanding Regiments in his Brigade, viz., Colonels Partimon Koer Ranajee, "Srinath Regiment"; Srikrishna Sohey, "Jungnath" Regiment; and Soorut Tappah, "Shumshere Dull" Regiment; and Captain Meerwan Sing, "Jungnath" Regiment, who, together with the Non-Commissioned Officers and Men of the Division, merit the approbation of His Highness the Maha Rajah.

7. My best thanks are due to the British Officers attached to the Division, for the ready assistance I received from all in the field, and have great pleasure in submitting their names for favorable notice, viz., Captain Lane, in charge of Brigadier Junga Doje's Brigade; Lieutenants Francis, Gibb, in charge of the Batteries of the Division; Robertson, Bogle who, though attached to the rear Division, joined Lieutenant Gibb's Batteries; Lieutenant Owen, late 19th Regiment Native Infantry, and Sankey, Madras Engineers, and Lieutenant Foote, attached to the advanced Regiment of the Right Brigade; Surgeons McClelland, Morton, and Assistant Surgeons Playfair and Gee, were unremitting in their attention to the wounded, both in the field and subsequently.

8. I cannot conclude without offering my best thanks to Mr. Forbes, of the Civil Service, he was well to the front with a small party of Sowars; his intimate knowledge of the country we have passed through, and accurate information he gathered, have been of great service.

9. Brigadier Run Sing Bahadoor has brought to my notice the gallant conduct of Lieutenant Aiteram Bishtab, of the Boordoo Doje Regiment, who cut down five of the Enemy.

10. Lieutenant Gibb mentions, for favorable notice, the names of Sergeants Home and King, Bengal Artillery.

I have, &c.,

To
CAPTAIN PLOWDEN,
In Mily. charge, 2nd Division,
Goorkha Force.
Camp Hyderghur, March 8th 1858.

SIR,
I HAVE the honor to furnish the following Report of the part taken by the Brigade, under the Command of Brigadier "Junga Doje" to which I am attached in Military charge, during the action with the Enemy in the morning of the 5th Instant.

After passing "Mussafir Khana" about 1½ mile on emerging from some mango groves, upon an open plain, we perceived the Enemy in our front occupying the banks of the "Kandoo Nullah." The Brigade was formed into line, and the Guns advancing, opened fire on the Enemy, which was replied to by 1 Gun in position on the opposite side of the Nullah, and a smart fire of Matchlock men posted amongst the ravines on this side. The Gun was soon silenced by the excellent practice of our Guns under the immediate superintendence of Lieutenant Gibb.

The order for the general advance of the Brigade was then given, one Regiment being told off to remain in support of the Guns; the Brigade taking ground to the left, slightly turned the Enemy's flank, and, advancing rapidly across the open ground under a heavy fire, at once became engaged with the Enemy amongst the ravines. From these they were soon driven with considerable loss across the Nullah into the heavy jungle on the opposite bank, and, closely pursued by our men, were shot and cut down in large numbers.

General Kurruck Bahadoor, seeing the Enemy in full flight, keeping two Companies for the protection of the Guns, granted permission to the remainder of the Regiment, in reserve, to join in the pursuit.

The pursuit was continued for some distance when the men becoming much scattered from the denseness of the jungle, I deemed it expedient to advise the re-call being sounded.

The Troops, returning to the bridge on the Lucknow road, took possession of the Gun.

I beg to record the services of Brigadier "Junga Doje," of Colonel Partimon Koer Ranajee, "Commanding the Seereenath Regiment," of Colonel "Srikrishna Sohey," of the "Jungnath Regiment," of Colonel Soorut Tappah, of the "Shumshere Dul Regiment." I am desirous that their conduct, as well as that of all the Officers and Men under them, should be brought to the favorable notice of His Highness the Maha Rajah.

I especially wish to mention the zeal with which Captain Meerwan Sing, of the "Jungnath Regiment," led his men to the attack.

Lieutenants Francis and Gibb, each in their own department, afforded me every assistance, and did also Lieutenant Sankey, of the Madras Engineers.

My acknowledgements are also due to Lieutenant Owen, of the late 19th Native Infantry, who kindly volunteered his services, and rendered me valuable assistance.

Lieutenant Bogle, of the Bengal Artillery, who arrived from the Head Quarters Camp, during the engagement, did good service.

Doctors Morton and Playfair, were in constant attendance on the Brigade, and all their arrangements met with my entire approbation.

Before concluding, I wish to bring to the favorable notice of the Brigadier General, the good conduct of Sergeants Home and King, attached to the Guns of the Brigade, especially that of the former, through whose excellent practice the Enemy's Gun was so speedily silenced.

I am happy to report that, notwithstanding the heaviness of the Enemy's fire, not a single Casualty occurred in the Brigade.

I have, &c., up in line in the centre at 1,000 yards, and came into action at a range of about 800 yards from the Enemy's position. After a few rounds of round shot and shrapnell, the Enemy's only Gun was silenced; after which the Infantry advanced rapidly.

Previously to the Infantry advancing, 4 Guns under Colonel Jussdeur Sing moved off to the right flank; owing to a deep dry Nullah, a little in front of the centre Guns, they could not be advanced further.

I hope you will bring to the notice of the Brigadier General the efficient services of Colonel Jussdeur Sing and Major Soogum Sing, Commanding Batteries, and of all the Officers and Men under their respective Command; also the ready assistance given to the Nepalese Artillery, by Lieutenant A. Bogle, Bengal Artillery, and by Sergeants Home and King, of the Bengal Artillery, who laid their Guns very effectively; the former in particular, who, in two shots silenced the Enemy's Gun. A Return of Ordnance captured accompanies.

Legislative Council of India.

The 27th March 1858.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council of India, received the assent of the Right Hon^{ble} the Governor General on the 19th March 1858, (communicated to the Legislative Council on the 27th Idem), and is hereby promulgated for general information :—

ACT No. X of 1858.

An Act to authorize the confiscation of Villages, the imposition of fines, and the forfeiture of certain offices in cases of rebellion and other crimes committed by Inhabitants of Villages or by members of tribes; and also to provide for the punishment of proprietors of land who neglect to assist in the suppression of rebellion or in the apprehension of rebels, mutineers, or deserters.

WHEREAS it is expedient to authorize the confiscation of Villages, the imposition of fines, and the forfeiture of certain offices in cases of rebellion and other crimes committed by Inhabitants of Villages or by members of tribes; and also to provide for the punishment of proprietors of land who neglect to assist in the suppression of rebellion or in the apprehension of rebels, mutineers, and deserters; It is enacted as follows :—

I. If it shall be proved to the satisfaction of a Magistrate that the Inhabitants of any Village within his jurisdiction, or any large number of the Inhabitants of such Village, have since the 1st day of May 1857 been guilty of rebellion, or of waging war against the State, or of murder, or of any of the offences specified in Section 11 Act XVI of 1857, although the individual offenders cannot be identified; or if it shall be proved to the satisfaction of a Magistrate that any European or American has been murdered or been subjected to any violent personal outrage in any such Village, and it shall not be proved to the satisfaction of the Magistrate that the Inhabitants of such Village used all the means in their power to prevent the commission of the offence; it shall be lawful for the Magistrate to impose a fine upon the Inhabitants of such Village, or upon any specified class of the Inhabitants of such Village; the amount of the fine to be fixed with reference to the means of the Inhabitants or class of Inhabitants, and the nature of the offence committed. If the owner or owners of the Village shall not prove to the satisfaction of the Magistrate that he or they used all the means in his or their power to prevent the commission of the offence, the Magistrate may confiscate the Village, either in lieu of, or in addition to, the imposition of such fine upon the Inhabitants. In like manner, if any hereditary Village Officer employed in the collection of the Land Revenue or in the Police in such Village shall not prove to the satisfaction of a Magistrate that he used all the means in his power to prevent the commission of the offence, the Magistrate may declare the hereditary office to be forfeited, and may confiscate any land or rights held by him in virtue of such office.

II. If it shall be proved to the satisfaction of a Magistrate that any members of a particular tribe have since the said 1st day of May 1857 been guilty of any of the above-mentioned offences within the limits of his jurisdiction, although the individual offenders cannot be identified, it shall be lawful for the Magistrate to impose a fine upon all the members of the tribe residing at or near the place where the offence was committed, or from which the offenders came.

III. It shall also be lawful for a Magistrate to impose a fine upon the inhabitants of any Village within his jurisdiction, if it shall be proved to his satisfaction that at any time after the passing of this Act, any rebel, mutineer, or deserter, or any person proclaimed by Government as a rebel, or for whose apprehension a reward shall have been publicly offered, or any person who shall have escaped from jail or other custody whilst under sentence of imprisonment or under trial for any offence mentioned in Section 111 Act V of 1858 (for the punishment of certain offenders who have escaped from jail and of persons who shall knowingly harbour such offenders), has been knowingly harboured or concealed within such Village; or that any arms or other property belonging to the East India Company have been knowingly concealed therein.

IV. The Magistrate may exempt from liability to pay any portion of a fine imposed under the provisions of this Act, any person whom he shall consider entitled to such exemption in consequence of his having delivered up or given such information as shall have led or shall be calculated to lead to the apprehension and conviction of any rebel, mutineer, or deserter, or other person guilty of any of the offences mentioned in Section I of this Act, or to the recovery of any arms or property belonging to the East India Company, or for any other reason which the Magistrate may deem sufficient.

V. If any Zemindar or other proprietor of land, when duly called upon by the Magistrate or by a Darogah, or District Police Officer to render assistance in the suppression of rebellion or the arrest of rebels, mutineers, or deserters, shall refuse or neglect to use all the means in his power for rendering such assistance, the Magistrate, on proof of such refusal or neglect, may impose a fine on the person so offending, or may confiscate his estate or interest in the land.

VI. Whenever a Magistrate shall order the confiscation of a Village, or of any land or rights, or of any estate or interest in land, or the imposition of a fine under this Act, he shall report his proceedings to the Commissioner. The Commissioner may either confirm or modify or annul the order of the Magistrate as he may think fit: provided that he shall not make any order which the Magistrate could not have made.

VII. When any fine is imposed under this Act, upon the Inhabitants of a Village or members of a tribe, the amount shall be assessed upon the Inhabitants of the Village or members of the tribe (as the case may be) by a panchayet appointed by the Magistrate, or in such other mode as the Magistrate may direct; and the assessment when approved by the Magistrate shall be final. Notice of the assessment, and of the time fixed by the Magistrate for the payment thereof, shall be given by affixing the same in some conspicuous place in the Village to which the order relates or where the persons liable to the fine reside.

VIII. If the full amount assessed be not paid within the time fixed by the Magistrate, which shall not be less than thirty days from the date of the assessment, the amounts assessed may be levied by order of the Magistrate by distress and sale of the moveable property of the parties liable for the same; and in case no sufficient moveable property shall be found within the Village, any house or immoveable property and any rent-free or other saleable tenure belonging to the defaulter may be sold by order of the Magistrate for the purpose of realizing the amount due from him. In the case of a fine imposed on the Inhabitants of a Village, the Magistrate may direct the Collector to sell the Village for the amount of the assessment remaining unpaid, unless the owner or owners of the Village shall pay such amount. The sale shall be subject to all the rules applicable to sales for the recovery of arrears of Revenue, save that it shall not in any case be necessary to obtain the sanction of the Sudder Board of Revenue or Board of Revenue to such sale. In the event of such sale taking place, or of the owner or owners making good the arrears of assessment to save the Village from sale, he or they may recover the arrears from the parties liable for the same in the same manner in which arrears of Rent may be recovered. Provided that, if the sum realized by the sale fall short of the arrears due, the owner or owners of the Village shall not recover more than the amount realized by the sale.

IX. Any confiscation of a Village under Section I of this Act shall have the effect of cancelling all under-tenures in the Village; and shall authorize the ejectment of all tenants or cultivators of land therein; and shall also have the effect of avoiding all incumbrances of the whole or any part of the Village which shall have been created after the date of the commission of the offence mentioned in the Magistrate's order, and all incumbrances created before the date of the commission of the offence if the incumbrancer shall have been in possession at the time, and also all incumbrances made after the passing of this Act unless the same shall have been made and registered three months before the commission of the offence or the day specified in the Magistrate's order as the date of the commission of the offence; and every sale of a Village under this Act shall have the same effect as a confiscation, except that it shall cancel such under-tenures only as belong to persons who have made default in payment of the amount assessed upon them.

X. All the provisions of this Act, which authorize the imposition and assessment of a fine upon the Inhabitants of a Village, shall extend to the Inhabitants of any Mohulla or Division of a City or Town; and the amount of any fine imposed under this Section, if not paid, shall be levied by order of the Magistrate by distress and sale of the moveable property of the parties liable for the same; and in case no sufficient moveable property shall be found within the Mohulla or Division, any house or immoveable property and any rent-free or other saleable tenure belonging to the defaulter may be sold by order of the Magistrate for the purpose of realizing the amount.

XI. Any fine imposed under Section V of this Act may be recovered in the manner above prescribed for the recovery of assessments, or by sale of the estate of the person liable to the fine; and such sale shall be made by the Collector on the requisition of the Magistrate, and shall be subject to all the rules applicable to the sale of estates for demands recoverable by the same process as arrears of Revenue, save that it shall not in any case be necessary to obtain the sanction of the Sudder Board of Revenue or Board of Revenue to such sale.

XII. No appeal shall lie from any order passed by a Magistrate in carrying out the provisions of this Act; but, except as otherwise provided, all orders and proceedings of the Magistrate shall be subject to the revision and control of the Commissioner; whose order shall be final.

XIII. If the Governor General in Council or the Executive Government shall see fit to remit any confiscation under this Act, all persons affected by such confiscation shall be restored to their rights as if no such confiscation had ever taken place.

XIV. No action or other proceeding shall be commenced or prosecuted against any person for any thing done under the authority of this Act.

XV. This Act shall take effect only in those Districts or places to which it shall be extended by order of the Governor General in Council or of the Executive Government of any Presidency or place. In the event of this Act being extended to any Districts or places subject to the Presidency of Fort St. George or to the Presidency of Bombay, the powers vested by this Act in the Commissioner shall be exercised by such Officer or Officers as the Executive Government may appoint; and all reports required to be made to the Commissioner shall be made to such Officer or Officers.

Act to take effect only in Districts or places to which it is extended by order of Government.

Powers vested in Commissioner to be exercised in the Madras and Bombay Presidencies by Officers appointed by Government.

Executive Government may appoint; and all reports required to be made to the Commissioner shall be made to such Officer or Officers.

XVI. The word "Magistrate" shall include every person authorized by the Executive Government to exercise the powers vested in a Magistrate by this Act; and the word "European" shall include any person usually designated a European British subject.

XVII. This Act shall continue in force for two years.

Duration of Act.

4 Bill to provide for the administration of the Estates and for the payment of the debts of the late Nabob of the Carnatic.

WHEREAS by Act I of 1844 it is enacted that no writ or process shall at any time be sued forth or prosecuted against the person, goods, or property of His Highness the Nabob of the Carnatic, or of such other person as therein mentioned, unless such writ or process shall be so sued forth with the consent of the Governor in Council of Madras first had and obtained as therein mentioned; and that any writ or process which shall at any time be sued out or prosecuted against the person or goods or property of His Highness or of any such person, without such consent, shall be utterly null and void: and whereas the Nabob died leaving debts and liabilities to a large amount unsatisfied, some of which were contracted by himself (and some by Ajeem Jah Bahadur as Nabob Regent or Naib-i-Mooktar during the infancy of the late Nabob): and whereas it is doubtful whether the creditors of the Nabob have, without the consent of the Governor in Council of Madras, any remedy for enforcing their claims against the goods or property which belonged to the said Nabob at the time of his death; and especially whether any part of the property left by the said late Nabob, which was of the nature of State or Public property, can be made available for payment of such claims: and whereas the East India Company is willing to give up any right which it has to any part of such property which is in the nature of State or Public property, and to allow the whole property, real and personal, of whatever kind left by the late Nabob, after appropriating to the payment of his debts such portion thereof as is liable to the payment thereof, to be applied towards making provision for the family and dependents of the late Nabob: and whereas the said East India Company is also willing to pay in full, to such of the creditors as shall be willing to accept the same in the manner herein mentioned, all such debts as shall be proved to have been fairly and justly contracted by the said Nabob or on his behalf during his infancy by the said Ajeem Jah as Nabob Regent, such debts to be estimated in respect of moneys at the amounts which may be proved to have been actually advanced to or paid for the use of the Nabob, and in respect of goods supplied or other matters at the amount which shall be proved to have been the fair and actual value thereof at the time when such debts were incurred, together with interest on such debts at a rate not exceeding six per centum per annum, the property of the said Nabob being applied in the first instance for that purpose, but any deficiency therein being made good by the said East India Company: and whereas the said Nabob is alleged to have mortgaged and created divers liens and securities upon certain portions of his property, of which or some of which the validity and extent of operation, especially as against the creditors of the said Nabob, is doubtful, and it may also be doubtful whether the same can be enforced in any of the ordinary Courts of Justice; and it is expedient that provision should be made for giving effect to the said mortgages, liens, and securities so far as the same shall have been created bona fide and for valuable consideration, and for affording a simple mode of ascertaining the rights of the parties claiming under such mortgages, liens, and securities: and whereas it is also alleged that various conveyances, deeds, and instruments have been executed by the late Nabob without valuable consideration in favor of persons who have under color thereof executed or created mortgages or assignments of or securities or liens on the property comprised therein: and whereas it is expedient that provision should be made for investigating all such claims, and for protecting the bona fide creditors of the said Nabob from the effect of any conveyances executed by the Nabob under such circumstances as rendered them void as against such creditors, and for affording a simple mode of ascertaining the rights of the parties claiming in respect thereof as well as of parties claiming to be creditors of the Nabob: It is enacted as follows:—

I. The Governor in Council of Madras shall, immediately after the passing of this Act, appoint such person as he may think fit to act under the orders of the Supreme Court of Judicature at Madras in the administration of the property of whatever nature left by the said late Nabob. The person so appointed shall be designated "The Receiver of the Carnatic property," and shall have power to collect and take possession of all such property, and shall hold the same according to the provisions of this Act.

II. The said Receiver shall be entitled to receive such a commission not exceeding five per centum upon the amount or value of the property collected by and distributed under the provisions of this Act, as the said Governor in Council shall appoint, which commission shall be charged to the estate.

III. The Governor in Council of Madras shall have full power to suspend or remove any person appointed such Receiver as aforesaid, and also from time to time to fill up any vacancy in such office which may be occasioned by death, retirement, suspension, or removal.

IV. Such Receiver shall represent the estate of the said late Nabob in all proceedings relating thereto under this Act or otherwise, and shall do and perform all acts in performance of his duties or office under his official designation, and in all proceedings whether at law or in equity he shall be so styled and designated; and no proceedings in which the Receiver may be a party shall abate by reason of the death, retirement, suspension, or removal from office of any such Receiver, but the same shall be continued and carried on as if no such death, resignation, suspension, or removal had accrued.

V. The Receiver shall have full power to collect, take possession of, and get in all property, moveable or immovable, belonging to the said late Nabob at the time of his death, and if necessary to sue for and recover the same in his own name as representing the said estate of the said Nabob under this Act, and to realize by sale or otherwise the value of the said property; and he shall proceed to collect, take possession of, and realize the same with all convenient speed immediately after the passing of this Act.

VI. Upon a suit being instituted as herein-after mentioned, the said Receiver shall be deemed subject to the orders and general practice of the said Court in the same manner as any other Receiver specially appointed by the said Court, except that he shall not be called upon by the said Court to give security.

VII. It shall be lawful for any creditor or person interested in the proper administration of the estate and effects of the said Nabob, to apply for and obtain in a summary way, in the manner provided by Act VI of 1854, upon a summons to be served upon the person appointed Receiver, an order for the administration of the estate and effects of the said Nabob; and such order, in addition to the ordinary directions contained in the usual order for the administration of the moveable and immovable estate of a deceased Mahomedan, shall direct that all creditors who may hold any mortgage or security upon any part of the estate or effects of the said Nabob shall come in and prove their claims and establish their securities and the consideration for the same, or in default thereof that they shall be barred and excluded from all benefit of their said securities; and the said Court shall also by the said order give such directions as to the notices to be issued to such creditors and otherwise, and shall direct such enquiries as to the Court shall seem fit.

VIII. Upon such order being made, the Court shall take an account of all debts and liabilities which were due from the said Nabob at the time of his death, and also of all the estate and effects of the said Nabob liable and available for the payment of such debts and liabilities; and shall also determine whether any and which of the said creditors had any and what mortgage or security upon any and what portion of the property of the said Nabob and for any and what consideration or amount, and whether such mortgage or security constituted a valid charge upon the whole or any and what portion of the property included therein.

IX. Every creditor of the said Nabob, who shall not come in and establish his claim under and according to the said order, shall be barred from all benefit of the said claim; and all persons who may hold or claim under any mortgage or security executed by the said Nabob or on his behalf, of or upon any property whatsoever which belonged to the said Nabob in his lifetime, who shall fail to come in and establish the same or the consideration for the same under and according to such order, shall be barred from all benefit of such mortgage or security; and the said Court may order the property affected thereby to be delivered up to the said Receiver.

X. In case it shall appear to the satisfaction of the Court that there is good reason to believe that any conveyance or other instrument executed by the said late Nabob in his lifetime was executed under circumstances which rendered the same void as against creditors, the said Court may, at any time pending the suit, order the person or persons claiming under such conveyance or instrument to come in and establish his claim under the same; and in default of compliance with the said order, the said Court may declare the said conveyance or instrument to be void as against the creditors of the said Nabob, and may order the property thereby conveyed to be delivered up to the said Receiver.

XI. No action or suit shall be commenced or prosecuted by any creditor of the said Nabob against any person as the representative of the said Nabob, otherwise than in accordance with the provisions of this Act; and all actions and suits, which at the time of the commencement of this suit shall be pending at the suit of any such creditor against any person as representative of the said Nabob, shall abate; the costs of such suit, if the said Court shall consider it reasonable, to be paid out of the assets of the said late Nabob.

XII. Any person claiming to be a creditor of the said late Nabob, who within the period of three months from the passing of this Act shall file in the Office of the Master of the said Supreme Court a written declaration stating that he is willing to receive in full discharge of his debt such amount as shall be ascertained by the said Supreme Court to have been justly and fairly due to him from the said late Nabob at the time of his death and to remain unpaid (such amount to be estimated in respect of moneys at the amount which shall be proved to have been actually advanced to or paid for the use of the said Nabob, and in respect of goods supplied or other matters at the amount which shall be proved to have been the fair and actual value thereof at the time when such debts were incurred) together with such interest (if any) not exceeding the rate of six per centum per annum as shall be awarded by the said Court; and that he is willing to give up any mortgage or security which he may hold upon any part of the property of the said late Nabob—shall be entitled, upon giving up such mortgage or security to the said Receiver, to have the amount of his claim ascertained by the said Court in manner hereinafter mentioned.

XIII. The said Court, upon the application of such creditor, shall appoint a day for ascertaining the amount of his debt, and reasonable notice of the day so appointed shall be given to the Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras.

Court, upon application, to fix a day for the investigation, and to give notice thereof to the Chief Secretary to Government of Madras.

by Counsel.

XIV. Upon every investigation under Section XV of this Act, the East India Company may appear and be heard

XV. Upon the day so fixed or upon any other day to which the Court may think fit to postpone the investigation, the Court shall proceed to ascertain and determine in a summary way what sum was due from the said Nabob at the time of his death to the claimant. Provided that, in simple interest thereon not exceeding the rate of six per centum per annum, notwithstanding any higher rate of interest may have been agreed to be paid; and that the said Court shall not allow to any person claiming to be a creditor, in respect of goods supplied or of any other matters, any larger sum than the amount which shall be proved to have been the fair and actual value thereof at the time when such debt was incurred, without reference to the price or sum which may have been agreed to be paid for or in respect thereof, together with simple interest thereon not exceeding the rate aforesaid, if the Court shall consider that the claimant is entitled to recover interest. If it shall appear to the said Court that the said debt remains due, the said Court shall issue an order for the payment of the amount so ascertained to be due, together with such interest thereon (if any) not exceeding six per centum per annum as the said Court shall consider that such creditor is fairly and justly entitled to recover. The Court may also, if it consider it reasonable so to do, order the costs of proving such debt to be paid out of the estate of the said late Nabob.

XVI. The amount ascertained by the Court to be due to the claimant upon the investigation under the last preceding Section, together with such interest and costs (if any) as shall be awarded by the Court, shall be paid to the claimant by the said Receiver within ten days after a copy of the order of the said Court shall have been served upon him. In case no sufficient assets belonging to the estate of the said late Nabob shall be in the hands of the Receiver to enable him to pay such amount, the same shall be forthwith paid out of the public Treasury of the East India Company. The amount so found due to such creditor as aforesaid for principal and interest shall be treated as a debt due to such creditor in taking an account of the debts and liabilities and of the estate and effects of the said Nabob in such administration suit as aforesaid.

Amount found due with interest and costs how to be paid.

XVII. If, after the decree of the Court in such administration suit as aforesaid, it shall appear that the amount paid to any such creditor out of the assets of the said Nabob exceeds the amount which under such decree would have been payable to such creditor if payment had not been made to him under the last preceding Section, the difference between the amount so paid and the amount which would have been payable shall be made good by the East India Company and shall be paid to the Receiver to enable him to carry out the decree in respect of the creditors remaining unpaid.

Provision if payment be made to a creditor in excess of the amount payable to him under the decree.

XVIII. No action or suit shall be brought against the East India Company or any person for any thing done under the provisions of this Act, or for or by reason of any act, reasonable or proper, for the protection of the estate of the said Nabob or for realizing the assets thereof, which may have been done before the passing of this Act by any person under the orders or with the sanction of the Government of Madras.

No action in respect of certain things done under this Act, or before the passing thereof if done with the sanction of Government.

XIX. No property shall be taken by the said Receiver out of the possession of any person mentioned in the list last published in the Government Gazette at Madras of persons entitled to privileges under the provisions of Act I of 1840, without the previous order of the Governor in Council of Madras.

No property to be taken by the Receiver out of possession of Nabob's family without the order of Government.

SATURDAY, APRIL 10, 1858.

Legislative Council of India.

The 3rd April 1858.

The following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council of India on the 3rd April 1858, and was referred to a Select Committee, who are to report thereon after the 7th of July next:—

A Bill to provide for the administration of the Estate and for the payment of the debts of the late Nabob of the Carnatic.

WHEREAS by Act 1 of 1844 it is enacted that no writ or process shall at any time be sued forth or prosecuted against the person, goods, or property of His Highness the Nabob of the Carnatic, or of such other person as therein mentioned, unless such writ or process shall be so sued forth with the consent of the Governor in Council of Madras first had and obtained as therein mentioned; and that any writ or process which shall at any time be sued out or prosecuted against the person or goods or property of His Highness or of any such person without such consent, shall be utterly null and void: and whereas the Nabob died leaving debts and liabilities to a large amount unsatisfied, some of which were contracted by himself (and some by Ajeem Jali Bahadoor as Nabob Regent or Naib-i-Moulkar during the infancy of the late Nabob): and whereas it is doubtful whether the creditors of the Nabob have, without the consent of the Governor in Council of Madras, any remedy for enforcing their claims against the goods or property which belonged to the said Nabob at the time of his death; and especially whether any part of the property left by the said late Nabob, which was of the nature of State or Public property, can be made available for payment of such claims: and whereas the East India Company is willing to give up any right which it has to any part of such property which is in the nature of State or Public property, and to allow the whole property, real and personal, of whatever kind left by the late Nabob, after appropriating to the payment of his debts such portion thereof as is liable to the payment thereof, to be applied towards making provision for the family and dependents of the late Nabob: and whereas the said East India Company is also willing to pay in full, to such of the creditors as shall be willing to accept the same in the manner herein mentioned, all such debts as shall be proved to have been fairly and justly contracted by the said Nabob or on his behalf during his infancy by the said Ajeem Jali as Nabob Regent, such debts to be estimated in respect of moneys at the amounts which may be proved to have been actually advanced to or paid for the use of the Nabob, and in respect of goods supplied or other matters at the amount which shall be proved to have been the fair and actual value thereof at the time when such debts were incurred, together with interest on such debts at a rate not exceeding six per centum per annum, the property of the said Nabob being applied in the first instance for that purpose, but any deficiency therein being made good by the said East India Company: and whereas the said Nabob is alleged to have mortgaged and created divers liens and securities upon certain portions of his property, of which or some of which the validity and extent of operation, especially as against the creditors of the said Nabob, is doubtful, and it may also be doubtful whether the same can be enforced in any of the ordinary Courts of Justice; and it is expedient that provision should be made for giving effect to the said mortgages, liens, and securities so far as the same shall have been created bonâ fide and for valuable consideration, and for affording a simple mode of ascertaining the rights of the parties claiming under such mortgages, liens, and securities: and whereas it is also alleged that various conveyances, deeds, and instruments have been executed by the late Nabob without valuable consideration in favor of persons who have under color thereof executed or created mortgages or assignments of or securities or liens on the property comprised therein: and whereas it is expedient that provision should be made for investigating all such claims, and for protecting the bonâ fide creditors of the said Nabob from the effect of any conveyances executed by the Nabob under such circumstances as rendered them void as against such creditors, and for affording a simple mode of ascertaining the rights of the parties claiming in respect thereof as well as of parties claiming to be creditors of the Nabob: It is enacted as follows:—

I. The Governor in Council of Madras shall, immediately after the passing of this Act, appoint such person as he may think fit to act under the orders of the Supreme Court of Judicature at Madras in the administration of the property of whatever nature left by the said late Nabob. The person so appointed shall be designated "The Receiver of the Carnatic property," and shall have power to collect and take possession of all such property, and shall hold the same according to the provisions of this Act.

II. The said Receiver shall be entitled to receive such a commission not exceeding five per centum upon the amount or value of the property collected by and distributed under the provisions of this Act, as the said Governor in Council shall appoint, which commission shall be charged to the estate.

III. The Governor in Council of Madras shall have full power to suspend or remove any person appointed such Receiver as aforesaid, and also from time to time to fill up any vacancy in such office which may be occasioned by death, retirement, suspension, or removal.

IV. Such Receiver shall represent the estate of the said late Nabob in all proceedings relating thereto under this Act or otherwise, and shall do and perform all acts in performance of his duties or office under his official designation, and in all proceedings whether at law or in equity he shall be so styled and designated; and no proceedings in which the Receiver may be a party shall abate by reason of the death, retirement, suspension, or removal from office of any such Receiver, but the same shall be continued and carried on as if no such death, resignation, suspension, or removal had accrued.

V. The Receiver shall have full power to collect, take possession of, and get in all property, moveable or immoveable, belonging to the said late Nabob at the time of his death, and if necessary to sue for and recover the same in his own name as representing the said estate of the said Nabob under this Act, and to realize by sale or otherwise the value of the said property; and he shall proceed to collect, take possession of, and realize the same with all convenient speed immediately after the passing of this Act.

VI. Upon a suit being instituted as hereinafter mentioned, the said Receiver shall be deemed subject to the orders and general practice of the said Court in the same manner as any other Receiver specially appointed by the said Court, except that he shall not be called upon by the said Court to give security.

VII. It shall be lawful for any creditor or person interested in the proper administration of the estate and effects of the said Nabob, to apply for and obtain in a summary way, in the manner provided by Act VI of 1854, upon a summons to be served upon the person appointed Receiver, an order for the administration of the estate and effects of the said Nabob; and such order, in addition to the ordinary directions contained in the usual order for the administration of the moveable and immoveable estate of a deceased Mahomedan, shall direct that all creditors who may hold any mortgage or security upon any part of the estate or effects of the said Nabob shall come in and prove their claims and establish their securities and the consideration for the same, or in default thereof that they shall be barred and excluded from all benefit of their said securities; and the said Court shall also by the said order give such directions as to the notices to be issued to such creditors and otherwise, and shall direct such enquiries as to the Court shall seem fit.

VIII. Upon such order being made, the Court shall take an account of all debts and liabilities which were due from the said Nabob at the time of his death, and also of all the estate and effects of the said Nabob liable and available for the payment of such debts and liabilities, and shall also determine whether any and which of the said creditors had any and what mortgage or security upon any and what portion of the property of the said Nabob and for any and what consideration or amount, and whether such mortgage or security constituted a valid charge upon the whole or any and what portion of the property included therein.

IX. Every creditor of the said Nabob, who shall not come in and establish his claim under and according to the said order, shall be barred from all benefit of the said claim; and all persons who may hold or claim under any mortgage or security executed by the said Nabob or on his behalf, of or upon any property whatsoever which belonged to the said Nabob in his lifetime, who shall fail to come in and establish the same or the consideration for the same under and according to such order, shall be barred from all benefit of such mortgage or security; and the said Court may order the property affected thereby to be delivered up to the said Receiver.

Upon a suit being instituted under this Act, Receiver to be subject to the orders of the Court.

Suit for administration of estate.

Special directions to be given as to creditors holding mortgages or other securities.

Accounts to be taken.

Creditors or mortgages not coming in to prove claim, to be barred.

X. In case it shall appear to the satisfaction of the Court that there is good reason to believe that any conveyance or other instrument executed by the said late Nabob in his lifetime was executed under circumstances which rendered the same void as against creditors, the said Court may, at any time pending the suit, order the person or persons claiming under such conveyance or instrument to come in and establish his claim under the same; and in default of compliance with the said order, the said Court may declare the said conveyance or instrument to be void as against the creditors of the said Nabob, and may order the property thereby conveyed to be delivered up to the said Receiver.

XI. No action or suit shall be commenced or prosecuted by any creditor of the said Nabob against any person as the representative of the said Nabob, otherwise than in accordance with the provisions of this Act; and all actions and suits, which at the time of the commencement of this suit shall be pending at the suit of any such creditor against any person as representative of the said Nabob, shall abate; the costs of such suit, if the said Court shall consider it reasonable, to be paid out of the assets of the said late Nabob.

XII. Any person claiming to be a creditor of the said late Nabob, who within the period of three months from the passing of this Act shall file in the Office of the Master of the said Supreme Court a written declaration stating that he is willing to receive in full discharge of his debt such amount as shall be ascertained by the said Supreme Court to have been justly and fairly due to him from the said late Nabob at the time of his death and to remain unpaid such amount to be estimated in respect of moneys at the amount which shall be proved to have been actually advanced to or paid for the use of the said Nabob, and in respect of goods supplied or other matters at the amount which shall be proved to have been the fair and actual value thereof at the time when such debts were incurred together with such interest (if any) not exceeding the rate of six per centum per annum as shall be awarded by the said Court; and that he is willing to give up any mortgage or security which he may hold upon any part of the property of the said late Nabob—shall be entitled, upon giving up such mortgage or security to the said Receiver, to have the amount of his claim ascertained by the said Court in manner hereinafter mentioned.

XIII. The said Court, upon the application of such creditor, shall appoint a day for ascertaining the amount of his debt, and reasonable notice of the day so appointed shall be given to the Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras.

XIV. Upon every investigation under Section XV of this Act, the East India Company may appear and be heard.

XV. Upon the day so fixed or upon any other day to which the Court may think fit to postpone the investigation, the Court shall proceed to ascertain and determine in a summary way what sum was due from the said Nabob at the time of his death to the claimant. Provided that, in fixing the amount of any debt or claim under the provisions of this Section, the said Court shall not allow to any person claiming to be a creditor, in respect of money lent or advanced, any larger sum than the amount proved to have been actually advanced, together with simple interest thereon not exceeding the rate of six per centum per annum, notwithstanding any higher rate of interest may have been agreed to be paid; and that the said Court shall not allow to any person claiming to be a creditor, in respect of goods supplied or of any other matters, any larger sum than the amount which shall be proved to have been the fair and actual value thereof at the time when such debt was incurred, without reference to the price or sum which may have been agreed to be paid for or in respect thereof, together with simple interest thereon not exceeding the rate aforesaid. If the Court shall consider that the claimant is entitled to recover interest. If it shall appear to the said Court that the said debt remains due, the said Court shall issue an order for the payment of the amount so ascertained to be due, together with such interest thereon (if any) not exceeding six per centum per annum as the said Court shall consider that such creditor is fairly and justly entitled to recover. The Court may also, if it consider it reasonable so to do, order the costs of proving such debt to be paid out of the estate of the said late Nabob.

XVI. The amount ascertained by the Court to be due to the claimant upon the investigation under the last preceding Section, together with such interest and costs (if any) as shall be awarded by the Court, shall be paid to the claimant by the said Receiver within ten days after a copy of the order of the said Court shall have been served upon him. In case no sufficient assets belonging to the estate of the said late Nabob shall be in the hands of the Receiver to enable him to pay such amount, the same shall be forthwith paid out of the public Treasury of the East India Company. The amount so found due to such creditor as aforesaid for principal and interest shall be treated as a debt due to such creditor in taking an account of the debts and liabilities and of the estate and effects of the said Nabob in such administration suit as aforesaid.

XVII. If, after the decree of the Court in such administration suit as aforesaid, it shall appear that the amount paid to any such creditor out of the assets of the said Nabob exceeds the amount which under such decree would have been payable to such creditor if payment had not been made to him under the last preceding Section, the difference between the amount so paid and the amount which would have been payable shall be made good by the East India Company and shall be paid to the Receiver to enable him to carry out the decree in respect of the creditors remaining unpaid.

XVIII. If, upon application, to his day for the investigation, to give notice thereof to the Chief Secretary to Government of Madras, the East India Company may appear and be heard by Counsel.

XVIII. No action or suit shall be brought against the East India Company or any person for any thing done under the provisions of this Act, or for or by reason of any act, reasonable or proper, for the protection of the estate of the said Nabob or for realizing the assets thereof, which may have been done before the passing of this Act by any person under the orders or with the sanction of the Government of Madras.

No action in respect of certain things done under this Act, or before the passing thereof if done with the sanction of Government.

realizing the assets thereof, which may have been done before the passing of this Act by any person under the orders or with the sanction of the Government of Madras.

XIX. No property shall be taken by the said Receiver out of the possession of any person mentioned in the list last published in the Government Gazette at Madras of persons entitled to privileges under the provisions of Act I of 1840, without the previous order of the Governor in Council of Madras.

No property to be taken by the Receiver out of possession of Nabob's family without the order of Government.

I of 1840, without the previous order of the Governor in Council of Madras.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 14, 1858.

Legislative Council of India.

The 3rd April 1858.

The following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council of India on the 3rd April 1858, and was referred to a Select Committee, who are to report thereon after the 7th of July next:—

A Bill to provide for the administration of the Estate and for the payment of the debts of the late Nabob of the Carnatic.

WHEREAS by Act 1 of 1844 it is enacted that no writ or process shall at any time be sued forth or prosecuted against the person, goods, or property of His Highness the Nabob of the Carnatic, or of such other person as therein mentioned, unless such writ or process shall be so sued forth with the consent of the Governor in Council of Madras first had and obtained as therein mentioned; and that any writ or process which shall at any time be sued out or prosecuted against the person or goods or property of His Highness or of any such person without such consent, shall be utterly null and void: and whereas the Nabob died leaving debts and liabilities to a large amount unsatisfied, some of which were contracted by himself (and some by Ajeem Jah Bahadur as Nabob Regent or Naib-i-Monaktar during the infancy of the late Nabob): and whereas it is doubtful whether the creditors of the Nabob have, without the consent of the Governor in Council of Madras, any remedy for enforcing their claims against the goods or property which belonged to the said Nabob at the time of his death; and especially whether any part of the property left by the said late Nabob, which was of the nature of State or Public property, can be made available for payment of such claims: and whereas the East India Company is willing to give up any right which it has to any part of such property which is in the nature of State or Public property, and to allow the whole property, real and personal, of whatever kind left by the late Nabob, after appropriating to the payment of his debts such portion thereof as is liable to the payment thereof, to be applied towards making provision for the family and dependents of the late Nabob: and whereas the said East India Company is also willing to pay in full, to such of the creditors as shall be willing to accept the same in the manner herein mentioned, all such debts as shall be proved to have been fairly and justly contracted by the said Nabob or on his behalf during his infancy by the said Ajeem Jah as Nabob Regent, such debts to be estimated in respect of moneys at the amounts which may be proved to have been actually advanced to or paid for the use of the Nabob, and in respect of goods supplied or other matters at the amount which shall be proved to have been the fair and actual value thereof at the time when such debts were incurred, together with interest on such debts at a rate not exceeding six per centum per annum, the property of the said Nabob being applied in the first instance for that purpose, but any deficiency thereof being made good by the said East India Company: and whereas the said Nabob is alleged to have mortgaged and created divers liens and securities upon certain portions of his property, of which some of which the validity and extent is open to question, especially as against the creditors of the said Nabob, is doubtful, and it may also be doubtful whether the same can be enforced in any of the ordinary Courts of Justice; and it is expedient that provision should be made for giving effect to the said mortgages, liens, and securities so far as the same shall have been created bond fide and for valuable consideration, and for affording a simple mode of ascertaining the rights of the parties claiming under such mortgages, liens, and securities: and whereas it is also alleged that various conveyances, deeds, and instruments have been executed by the late Nabob without valuable consideration in favor of persons who have under color thereof executed or created mortgages or assignments of or securities or liens on the property comprised therein: and whereas it is expedient that provision should be made for investigating all such claims, and for protecting the bond fide creditors of the said Nabob from the effect of any conveyances executed by the Nabob under such circumstances as render them void as against such creditors, and for affording a simple mode of ascertaining the rights of the parties claiming in respect thereof as well as of parties claiming to be creditors of the Nabob: It is enacted as follows:—

I. The Governor in Council of Madras shall, immediately after the passing of this Act, appoint such person as he may think fit to act under the orders of the Supreme Court of Judicature at Madras in the administration of the property of whatever nature left by the said late Nabob. The person so appointed shall be designated "The Receiver of the Carnatic property," and shall have power to collect and take possession of all such property, and shall hold the same according to the provisions of this Act.

II. The said Receiver shall be entitled to receive such a commission not exceeding five per centum upon the amount or value of the property collected by and distributed under the provisions of this Act, as the said Governor in Council shall appoint, which commission shall be charged to the estate.

III. The Governor in Council of Madras shall have full power to suspend or remove any person appointed such Receiver as aforesaid, and also from time to time to fill up any vacancy in such office which may be occasioned by death, retirement, suspension, or removal.

IV. Such Receiver shall represent the estate of the said late Nabob in all proceedings relating thereto under this Act or otherwise, and shall do and perform all acts in performance of his duties or office under his official designation, and in all proceedings whether at law or in equity he shall be so styled and designated; and no proceedings in which the Receiver may be a party shall abate by reason of the death, retirement, suspension, or removal from office of any such Receiver, but the same shall be continued and carried on as if no such death, resignation, suspension, or removal had accrued.

V. The Receiver shall have full power to collect, take possession of, and get in all property, moveable or immoveable, belonging to the said late Nabob at the time of his death, and if necessary to sue for and recover the same in his own name as representing the said estate of the said Nabob under this Act, and to realize by sale or otherwise the value of the said property; and he shall proceed to collect, take possession of, and realize the same with all convenient speed immediately after the passing of this Act.

VI. Upon a suit being instituted as hereinafter mentioned, the said Receiver shall be deemed subject to the orders and general practice of the said Court in the same manner as any other Receiver specially appointed by the said Court, except that he shall not be called upon by the said Court to give security.

VII. It shall be lawful for any creditor or person interested in the proper administration of the estate and effects of the said Nabob, to apply for and obtain in a summary way, in the manner provided by Act VI of 1854, upon a summons to be served upon the person appointed Receiver, an order for the administration of the estate and effects of the said Nabob; and such order, in addition to the ordinary directions contained in the usual order for the administration of the moveable and immoveable estate of a deceased Mahomedan, shall direct that all creditors who may hold any mortgage or security upon any part of the estate or effects of the said Nabob shall come in and prove their claims and establish their securities and the consideration for the same, or in default thereof that they shall be barred and excluded from all benefit of their said securities; and the said Court shall also by the said order give such directions as to the notices to be issued to such creditors and otherwise, and shall direct such enquiries as to the Court shall seem fit.

VIII. Upon such order being made, the Court shall take an account of all debts and liabilities which were due from the said Nabob at the time of his death, and also of all the estate and effects of the said Nabob liable and available for the payment of such debts and liabilities; and shall also determine whether any and which of the said creditors had any and what mortgage or security upon any and what portion of the property of the said Nabob and for any and what consideration or amount, and whether such mortgage or security constituted a valid charge upon the whole or any and what portion of the property included therein.

IX. Every creditor of the said Nabob, who shall not come in and establish his claim under and according to the said order, shall be barred from all benefit of the said claim; and all persons who may hold or claim under any mortgage or security executed by the said Nabob or on his behalf, of or upon any property whatsoever which belonged to the said Nabob in his lifetime, who shall fail to come in and establish the same or the consideration for the same under and according to such order, shall be barred from all benefit of such mortgage or security; and the said Court may order the property affected thereby to be delivered up to the said Receiver.

X. In case it shall appear to the satisfaction of the Court that there is good reason to believe that any conveyance or other instrument executed by the said late Nabob in his lifetime was executed under circumstances which rendered the same void as against creditors, the said Court may, at any time pending the suit, order the person or persons claiming under such conveyance or instrument to come in and establish his claim under the same; and in default of compliance with the said order, the said Court may declare the said conveyance or instrument to be void as against the creditors of the said Nabob, and may order the property thereby conveyed to be delivered up to the said Receiver.

XI. No action or suit shall be commenced or prosecuted by any creditor of the said Nabob against any person as the representative of the said Nabob, otherwise than in accordance with the provisions of this Act; and all actions and suits, which at the time of the commencement of this suit shall be pending at the suit of any such creditor against any person as representative of the said Nabob, shall abate; the costs of such suit, if the said Court shall consider it reasonable, to be paid out of the assets of the said late Nabob.

XII. Any person claiming to be a creditor of the said late Nabob, who within the period of three months from the passing of this Act shall file in the Office of the Master of the said Supreme Court a written declaration stating that he is willing to receive in full discharge of his debt such amount as shall be ascertained by the said Supreme Court to have been justly and fairly due to him from the said late Nabob at the time of his death and to remain unpaid (such amount to be estimated in respect of moneys at the amount which shall be proved to have been actually advanced to or paid for the use of the said Nabob, and in respect of goods supplied or other matters at the amount which shall be proved to have been the fair and actual value thereof at the time when such debts were incurred) together with such interest (if any) not exceeding the rate of six per centum per annum as shall be awarded by the said Court; and that he is willing to give up any mortgage or security which he may hold upon any part of the property of the said late Nabob—shall be entitled, upon giving up such mortgage or security to the said Receiver, to have the amount of his claim ascertained by the said Court in manner hereinafter mentioned.

XIII. The said Court, upon the application of such creditor, shall appoint a day for ascertaining the amount of his debt, and reasonable notice of the day so appointed shall be given to the Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras.

Court, upon application, to fix a day for the investigation, and to give notice thereof to the Chief Secretary to Government of Madras.

think fit to postpone the investigation, the Court shall proceed to ascertain and determine in a summary way what sum was due from the said Nabob at the time of his death to the claimant. Provided that, in fixing the amount of any debt or claim under the provisions of this Section, the said Court shall not allow to any person claiming to be a creditor, in respect of money lent or advanced, any larger sum than the amount proved to have been actually advanced, together with simple interest thereon not exceeding the rate of six per centum per annum, notwithstanding any higher rate of interest may have been agreed to be paid; and that the said Court shall not allow to any person claiming to be a creditor, in respect of goods supplied or of any other matters, any larger sum than the amount which shall be proved to have been the fair and actual value thereof at the time when such debt was incurred, without reference to the price or sum which may have been agreed to be paid for or in respect thereof, together with simple interest thereon not exceeding the rate aforesaid, if the Court shall consider that the claimant is entitled to recover interest. If it shall appear to the said Court that the said debt remains due, the said Court shall issue an order for the payment of the amount so ascertained to be due, together with such interest thereon (if any) not exceeding six per centum per annum as the said Court shall consider that such creditor is fairly and justly entitled to recover. The Court may also, if it consider it reasonable so to do, order the costs of proving such debt to be paid out of the estate of the said late Nabob.

XVI. The amount ascertained by the Court to be due to the claimant upon the investigation under the last preceding Section, together with such interest and costs (if any) as shall be awarded by the Court, shall be paid to the claimant by the said Receiver within ten days after a copy of the order of the said Court shall have been served upon him. In case no sufficient assets belonging to the estate of the said late Nabob shall be in the hands of the Receiver to enable him to pay such amount, the same shall be forthwith paid out of the public Treasury of the East India Company. The amount so found due to such creditor as aforesaid for principal and interest shall be treated as a debt due to such creditor in taking an account of the debts and liabilities and of the estate and effects of the said Nabob in such administration suit as aforesaid.

XVII. If, after the decree of the Court in such administration suit as aforesaid, it shall appear that the amount paid to any such creditor out of the assets of the said Nabob exceeds the amount which under such decree would have been payable to such creditor if payment had not been made to him under the last preceding Section, the difference between the amount so paid and the amount which would have been payable shall be made good by the East India Company and shall be paid to the Receiver to enable him to carry out the decree in respect of the creditors remaining unpaid.

XVIII. No action or suit shall be brought against the East India Company or any person for any thing done under the provisions of this Act, or for or by reason of any act, reasonable or proper, for the protection of the estate of the said Nabob or for realizing the assets thereof, which may have been done before the passing of this Act by any person under the orders or with the sanction of the Government of Madras.

XIX. No property shall be taken by the said Receiver out of the possession of any person mentioned in the list last published in the Government Gazette at Madras of persons entitled to privileges under the provisions of Act I of 1840, without the previous order of the Governor in Council of Madras.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council of India.

The 10th April 1858.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council of India on the 3rd April 1858, and referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 14th of June next:—

A Bill to make further provision for the settlement of land gained by alluvion in the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal.

WHEREAS, for the removal of doubts respecting the course proper to be followed in the settlement of land added by alluvial accession to estates paying Revenue to Government, it is expedient to lay down certain rules to be observed in the settlement of such land; It is enacted as follows:—

I. When land is added by alluvial accession to an estate paying Revenue to Government, if it be so agreed on between the Revenue authorities and the proprietor or proprietors, the Revenue assessed upon the alluvial land may be added to the jumma of the original estate; and in such case a new engagement shall be executed for the payment of the aggregate amount, and that amount shall be substituted in the Collector's rent-roll for the former jumma of the original estate. If the proprietor or proprietors object to such an arrangement, or if the Revenue authorities are of opinion that a settlement of the alluvial land cannot properly be made for the same term as the existing settlement of the original estate, the alluvial land shall be assessed and settled as a separate estate with a separate jumma, subject to all the provisions respecting the rights of property therein which are contained in Section IV Regulation XI, 1825, and shall thenceforward be regarded and treated as in all respects separate from and independent of the original estate.

II. Every separate settlement of alluvial land heretofore made shall be as good and effectual for all the purposes above specified as the same would have been if made subsequently to the passing of this Act. Provided that nothing contained in this Act shall be held to affect the rights which any person may have acquired, under a judicial decision or otherwise, before the passing of this Act.

Clerk of the Council.

THE DY. ADJT. GENL. OF THE ARMY.

FROM

Dated Camp, Huldwanee, 6th March 1858.

SIR,

FOR the information of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, I have the honor to forward a Report from Captain Baugh, of a successful attack upon a party of the Enemy.

2. Having heard they had sent a detachment to collect revenue at Sitargunge, 25 miles from this, I determined to surprise them. The unfortunate and unexpected absence of the larger part of their Force rendered the expedition less successful than I had hoped it would have been. We have since ascertained that the number of the Enemy killed was 25, and the effect must be very good, as it will show them they are not safe within 30 miles of the Hills.

3. Considerable credit is due to Captain Baugh, for his exertion in mounting the whole party on elephants, and for his subsequent arrangements. Mr. S. Carmichael, C. S., was most useful. Surgeon H. Irwin, 66th Goorkhas, volunteered to accompany the Force.

4. The Rebel Army is now at Buteree* under command of Fuzul Huq, and is reported to consist of about five thousand men with 6 Guns.

I have, &c.,

Commanding in Kumaon.

Captain F. W. BAUGH,
Comdg. Nepal Contingent,

To

Captain BROWNLOW,

FROM

Major of Brigade, Camp.

SIR,

I have the honor to report, for the information of the Officer Commanding in Kumaon, that, agreeably to instructions, I marched at 10 P. M. on the 3rd Instant with the Force, as per margin, to Sitargunge. The Infantry and Artillery mounted on elephants and arrived there at daylight on the 4th Instant. I was unfortunately delayed $\frac{1}{2}$ of an hour on the road by the elephant carrying one of the Mountain Howitzers falling sick.

The Rebels had double sentries posted on the roof of the Government Tehseel, a high building some 40 or 50 yards square. I ordered the Cavalry to gallop up and surrounded it; but before they could do so, some eight or ten of the Rebels made their escape to the West into the high grass, the rest 15 were killed, among whom was a man called Khoda Buksh and said to be the Thannadar of the place, who had wounded a Sepoy of the 66th Goorkhas slightly, the only casualty that occurred. The main body of this party had gone the previous day to a dinner at a village about 6 miles distant, and I deemed it imprudent to follow them.

All their papers and horses were captured, and brought into Camp, at which I arrived at 3 P. M., on the 4th Instant, having marched 50 miles in 17 hours, including 3 hours in the different halts.

Mr. C. Carmichael, C. S., who accompanied the force at the request of Major Ramsay, Commissioner, gave me every assistance from his knowledge of the different localities on the road and at Sitargunge. All behaved with the greatest cheerfulness and activity.

I have, &c.,

(Signed) H. W. BAUGH, Captain,
Comdg. Nepal Contingent.

Forwarded, by order of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, for the information of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General.

EXTRAORDINARY.

ALLAHABAD, MONDAY, APRIL 5, 1858.

General Orders by the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India.
Military Department.

Allahabad, the 5th April 1858.

No. 54 of 1858. The Right Hon'ble the Governor General having now received the Despatches from his Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, giving an account of the re-taking of Lucknow by the Force under His Excellency's personal Command, is pleased to publish them for general information:—

In December last, it became the grateful duty of the Governor General in Council to promulgate in General Orders the announcement of the relief of the Garrison of Lucknow, so admirably achieved by General Sir Colin Campbell, G. C. B., and the rescue of the Women and Children, sick and wounded, long beleaguered there. It is now the Governor General's privilege to convey to His Excellency the tribute of his highest admiration, and of his most cordial congratulations on the capture of the strong City of the Rebels.

From the 2nd till the 16th of March, a series of masterly operations took place, by which the Commander-in-Chief, nobly supported in his well-laid plans of attack by the ability and skill of the General Officers, and by the indomitable bravery and resolution of the Officers and Men of all Arms, drove the Rebels successively from all their strongly fortified posts, till the whole fell into the possession of our Troops.

That this great success should have been accomplished at so little cost of valuable lives, enhances the honor due to the Leader who has achieved it.

It is a pleasure to the Governor General to acknowledge publicly the services of the General and other Officers who took part in the capture of Lucknow.

During the last days of the operations, the Nepalese Force, under Maha Rajah Jung Bahadur, was associated with the Army under General Sir Colin Campbell's Command.

To the distinguished Leader of that Force, the Maha Rajah Jung Bahadur, the Governor General desires to express his thanks for the hearty co-operation which the Commander-in-Chief received from His Highness, and for the gallant bearing of His Highness' Troops.

To Major-General Sir James Outram, G. C. B., the Government of India is under a new debt of gratitude. After having held the exposed post of Alam Bagh for more than three months, in the face of powerful bodies of Rebels, whose attacks he never failed to repel, Sir James Outram has further greatly distinguished himself at the head of the 1st Division, by the brilliant and thoroughly complete manner in which he executed the duties entrusted to him. The Governor General requests that Sir James Outram will accept his most sincere thanks.

His Lordship offers his hearty acknowledgments to the other General Officers whose services are prominently noticed in these Despatches:—

To Major-General Mansfield, Chief of the Staff, of whose eminent services the Commander-in-Chief speaks with well merited commendation.

To Major-General Sir Archdale Wilson, Baronet, K. C. B., in chief Command of the Artillery who, after winning lasting renown in the capture of Delhi, has borne a conspicuous part in the reduction of Lucknow.

To Major-General Sir J. Hope Grant, K. C. B., Commanding the Cavalry of the Force; to Brigadier-General Franks, C. B.; Brigadier-General Walpole, and Brigadier-General Sir Edward Lugard, K. C. B., Commanding the 2nd, 3rd and 4th Divisions of Infantry.

The Governor General has to record his acknowledgments to Captain Sir William Peel, K. C. B., Commanding the Naval Brigade of Her Majesty's Ship Shannon, and to offer his especial thanks to him for his remarkable services.

The Governor General entirely concurs with His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, in prominently recognizing the great skill and ability of Brigadier Napier, who Commanded the Engineers of Her Majesty's and the East India Company's Services forming part of the Force. Brigadier Napier is especially entitled to the thanks of the Governor General; and to him, to Colonel Harpess, Commanding the Royal Engineers, and to the several Officers under them, of both the services. His Lordship's grateful acknowledgments are offered.

The Governor General has much satisfaction in expressing his high sense of the merits of the several Officers Commanding Brigades and Regiments.

To the Commanding Officers of the Royal Artillery, of the Naval Artillery, and of the Bengal and Madras Artillery, the Governor General tender his cordial thanks.

To Major Norman, Deputy Adjutant General of the Army, to whose superior merits and distinguished services the Commander-in-Chief bears willing testimony, a tribute in which the Governor General concurs; to Colonel the Hon'ble W. L. Pakenham, C. B., Officiating Adjutant General, Her Majesty's Forces in India; to Lieutenant-Colonel Macpherson, Officiating Quarter Master General of the Army; to Captain Seymour, Officiating Quarter Master General Her Majesty's Forces; to Captain Bruce, Deputy Quarter Master General, and Captain Algood, Assistant Quarter Master General; to Lieutenant-Colonel Keith Young, Judge Advocate General; to Captain Fitzgerald, Assistant Commissary General, who is specially mentioned by the Commander-in-Chief to Lieutenant P. Stewart, of Engineers, Superintendent of Electric Telegraphs; to Dr. MacAndrew, Inspector General of Hospitals, Her Majesty's Forces, and to Doctor Brown, Superintending Surgeon of the Force, the Governor General has much satisfaction in expressing his sense of the good service they have rendered.

To the Officers of the Personal Staff of the Commander-in-Chief, of the Chief of the Staff, and of General Officers Commanding Divisions, the thanks of the Governor General are due; and His Lordship records his acknowledgments to the Officers of the Staff, of Divisions and Brigades, all of whom have zealously performed their duty.

To the Officers and Men of every Service, Soldiers, Seamen and Marines, composing the Force by which Lucknow has been taken, the Governor General desires to express his admiration of their conduct, and to tender to each individual the thanks of the Government of India. His Lordship will take the earliest opportunity of bringing under the favorable notice of Her Majesty's Government, and of the Hon'ble the Court of Directors, the services rendered by the Force.

In testimony of the services, the Governor General is pleased to direct that every Officer and Soldier, European and Native, and the Officers and Men of the Navy, who took part in the capture of Lucknow, shall receive a donation of six months' batta.

By order of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General.

THE VISCOUNT CANNING,

Governor General of India,

Camp, La Martiniere,

Lucknow, 22nd March 1858.

MY LORD,

I HAVE the honor to announce to your Lordship, that I transferred my Head Quarters to the Camp of Brigadier-General Sir Edward Lugard, K. C. B., at Buntara, on the 28th ultimo, the Division which had been detached under Brigadier-General, Sir J. Hope Grant, K. C. B., and that under Brigadier-General Walpole joining the next day.

Having received tolerably correct information with respect to the lines of works which had been constructed by the Enemy for the defence of Lucknow, it appeared evident to me that the necessity would arise for operating from both sides of the Goomtee, when the capture of the City should be seriously entertained.

Two very important reasons conduced to show the expediency of such a course,—the one being that it would become possible to outflank many of the Enemy's new works,—the other that great avenues of supply would be closed against the Town, although I could not hope to invest a City having a circumference of twenty miles.

My first preparations, therefore, were made for the purpose of crossing the River. Bridges of Casks had been previously constructed, and were ready in the Engineer's Park.

On the 2nd March, I advanced on Dilkhooshin with Troops as per margin, and seized that position after a skirmish in which a Gun was taken from the Enemy.

When the Brigades of Infantry began to close on the Advance Guard, the Enemy opened several Guns which were in positions in strong placed in battery at both points to keep down the hostile fire.

During the whole of the 2nd, until these arrangements could be completed, the Troops were much annoyed by the Enemy's Guns.

After that day, until an advance took place, although the shot ranged up to and sometimes into the Camp, but slight loss ensued from this cause.

On the 3rd and 4th, the remainder of the Siege Train, together with Brigadier General Walpole's Division, closed up on the Dilkhoosha position, the Right of our line resting on Bibiapore and the Goomtee, the Left being towards Alum Bagh.

There was an interval of about two miles between our left and Jellalabad, the right of the Alum Bagh position. This interval was occupied by a Regiment of Irregular Horse.* Brigadier Campbell, with a strong Brigade of Cavalry and Horse Artillery, secured the extreme left, and swept the Country towards the North-West.

Three Infantry Regiments were withdrawn from Alum Bagh, and joined the Head Quarters Camp.

On the 5th, General Franks, or the 4th Division of Infantry, came into direct communication with me. This Officer had marched right across the Kingdom of Oude, having signally defeated many bodies of Insurgents, and kept his time with punctuality according to the orders given to him, with which your Lordship is already acquainted.

On the same day the Goomtee was bridged near Bibiapore. Whilst the Bridge was being formed, the Enemy showed on the left bank, causing the necessity of a disposition of Troops and heavy Guns. He did not, however, make a real attack.

These Guns were very useful in another respect, as their practice on the Martiniere silenced much fire, which would otherwise have annoyed the Picquets.

They were accordingly kept on the same ground for some days, till the advance of the Troops rendered them unnecessary.

On the 6th, Sir James Outram, G. C. B., who had been withdrawn from Alum Bagh, crossed to the left bank of the Goomtee was the outer one.

The second line circled round the large building called the Moss-house and the Moti Mahul, and the first or interior one was the principal rampart of the Kaiser Bagh.

The rear of the enclosures of the latter being closed in by the City through which, approach would have been dangerous to an assailant.

These lines were flanked by numerous bastions and rested at one end on the Goomtee, and at the other on the great buildings of the Street called the Huzrut Gunge, all of which were strongly fortified, and flanked the Street in every direction.

Extraordinary care had been expended on the defences of the houses and bastions, to enfilade

the Street. His duty was ably performed by Sir

James Outram, who pitched his Camp on the 6th

Instant, after a skirmish of his Advance Guard, in front of the Chukkur Walla Kotee, or Yellow house.

On the 7th he was attacked by the Enemy, who was speedily driven back.

Having reconnoitred, the ground on the 8th

Instant, I directed Sir James Outram to arrange his Batteries during the succeeding night, and to attack the Enemy's position, the key of which was the Chukkur Walla Kotee, the next day or the 9th.

This was done in very good style by the Troops under his Command, the Enemy being driven at points, the Yellow-house being seized, and the whole Force advanced for some distance through ground affording excellent cover for the Enemy.

He was then able to bring his Right Shoulder forward, occupying the Fyzabad Road, and to plant his Batteries for the purpose of enfilading

the works on the Canal before alluded to.

He lost no time in doing this, other Batteries of heavy Guns and Howitzers being constructed developed, and Sir J. Outram was directed to push his advance up the left bank of the Goomtee, while the Troops in the position of Dilkhoosha, remained at rest till it should have become apparent that the line of the Enemy's works, on the rampart running along the Canal and abutting on the Goomtee, had been turned.

The works may be briefly described as follows:—

The series of courts and buildings called the Kaiser Bagh, considered as a citadel by the Rebels, was shut in by three lines of defence towards the Goomtee, of which the line of the Canal

The plan of attack which had been conceived, was now

At 2 P. M., the 42nd Highlanders, supported the 93rd Highlanders, the 53rd and 90th Regiments, stormed the Martiniere under the direct of Brigadier General Sir Edward Lugard, K. C. B., and Brigadier the Hon'ble Adrian Hope.

It was quickly seen that the enfilading fire on the line of the Canal from the opposite side of the River had produced the expected result.

The 4th Punjab Infantry, supported by the 42nd Highlanders, climbed up the entrenchment abutting on the Goomtee, and proceeded to sweep down the whole line of the works, till they got to the neighbourhood of Banks' house, when it became necessary to close operations for the night.

Major Wyllie, 4th Punjab Rifles, distinguished himself very much on this occasion. The line of works was strongly occupied by the Troops which had first entered, and by the 53rd Regiment.

On the 10th Instant, Sir James Outram was engaged in strengthening his position. Sir James Hope Grant, K. C. B., being employed in patrolling towards the Cantonment with the Cavalry placed under Sir James Outram's orders, a system of extensive patrolling or reconnaissance having been established by my order in that direction, from the time that the first position had been taken up across the Goomtee.

At sun-rise on the same day, a disposition of Troops and Heavy Guns was made by Sir Edward Lugard, for the attack of Banks' house, which was carried at noon, and secured as a strong Military post.

The second part of the plan of attack against the Kaiser Bagh now came into operation, viz., to use the great blocks of Houses and Palaces, extending from Banks' house to the Kaiser Bagh, in our approach, instead of sapping up towards the front of the second line of works.

By these means I was enabled to turn the new works towards our own Left, at the same time that they were enfiladed on the Right by Sir James Outram's advance.

The latter had already received orders to plant his Guns with a view to raking the Enemy's position, to annoy the Kaiser Bagh both with vertical and direct fire, also to attack the suburbs in the vicinity of the Iron and Stone-Bridges, shortly after day-break, and so Command the Iron-Bridge from the left bank.

All this was carried out by Sir James Outram with the most marked success.

The Enemy, however, still held tenaciously to his own end of the Iron-Bridge on the Right bank, and there was heavy cannonading from both sides, till the Bridge was afterwards taken in reverse.

Sir Edward Lugard's attack on the 11th was pressed forward in the manner.

The operation had now become one of Engineering character, and the most earnest endeavours were made to save the Infantry from being hazarded before due preparation had been made.

The Chief Engineer, Brigadier Napier, placed the Batteries with a view to breaching and shelling a large block of Palaces called the Begum Kotas.

The latter was stormed with great gallantry by the 93rd Highlanders, supported by the 4th Punjab Rifles, and one thousand Goorkhas, led by Brigadier the Honorable Adrian Hope, under the direction of Brigadier General Sir Edward Lugard, at 4 P. M.

The Troops secured the whole block of buildings, and inflicted a very heavy loss on the Enemy, the attack having been one of very desperate character.

This was the sternest struggle which occurred during the Siege.

From thence forward the Chief Engineer pushed his approach with the greatest judgment through the enclosures, by the aid of the Sappers and of heavy Guns, the Troops immediately occupying the ground as he advanced, and the Mortars being moved from one position to another as ground was won on which they could be placed.

The buildings to the right, and the Secunder-Bagh were taken in the early morning of the same day without opposition.

During the night of the 12th, Sir James Outram was reinforced with a number of heavy Guns and Mortars, and directed to increase his fire on the Kaiser Bagh, while at the same time, Mortars placed in position at the Begum's house never ceased to play on the Emambara, the next large Palace it was necessary to storm between the Begum Kotas and the Kaiser Bagh.

On Brigadier-General Franks, C. B., who had relieved Sir Edward Lugard, and the 2nd Division, with the 4th Division, on the 12th Instant, devolved the duty of attacking the Emambara.

A Column of Attack was formed for that purpose by Brigadier D. Russell, on the morning of the 14th.

In the mean time, the Maha Rajah Jung Bahadur, with a Force of about (9,000) Nine Thousand Men and with 24 Field Guns drawn by Men, had arrived, and taken his position in our line on the 12th Instant, and moved close to the Canal on the 13th.

At my request, His Highness was begged by Brigadier General MacGregor, C. B., the Special Commissioner attached to him, to pass the Canal and attack the suburb in his front and considerably to the left of Banks' house. To this His Highness acceded with much willingness, and his Force was most advantageously employed in thus covering my Left for several days, during which, from the nature of our operations, I was obliged to mass all the available strength of the British Force towards the Right, in the joint attack carried along both banks of the Goomtee.

The Emambara was carried early on the 14th, and the Sikhs of the Ferozepore Regiment under Major Brayer, pressing forward in pursuit, entered the Kaiser Bagh, the third line of the defences having been turned without a single Gun being fired from them.

Supports were quickly thrown in, and all the well-known ground of former defence and attack, the Mess-house, the Tara Kotas, the Motas Mehal, and the Chuttur Munzil were rapidly occupied by the Troops, while the Engineers devoted their attention to securing the position towards the South and West. The day was one of long and continued exertion, and every one felt that, although much remained to be done before the final expulsion of the Rebels, the most difficult part of the undertaking had been overcome.

This is not the place for description of the various buildings successively sapped into or stormed; suffice it to say, that they formed a range of massive palaces and walled courts of vast extent, equalled perhaps, but certainly not surpassed in any capital in Europe. Every outlet had been covered by a work, and on every side were prepared barricades and loopholed parapets.

The extraordinary industry evinced by the Enemy in this respect has been really unexampled. Hence the absolute necessity for holding the Troops in hand, till at each successive move forward the Engineers reported to me that all which could be effected by Artillery and the Sappers had been done before the Troops were led to the assault.

The 15th Instant was employed in securing what had been taken, removing powder, destroying mines, and fixing mortars for the further bombardment of the positions still held by the Enemy on the line of our Advance up the Goomtee, and in the heart of the City.

Brigadier-General Sir J. Hope Grant, K. C. B., was sent out with Cavalry on one side towards Seetapore to intercept fugitives, while Brigadier Campbell marched with like orders in the direction of Sundeela on a similar duty. They returned on the 17th to their former positions.

On the 16th Instant, Sir James Outram, with the 5th Brigade under Brigadier Douglas, supported by two other Regiments, H. M.'s 20th and the Regiment of Ferozapore having crossed over the Goomtee by a Bridge of Casks opposite the Secunder Bagh, advanced according to order through the Chuttur Manzil to take the Residency.

During the first movements of this operation, a movement of the Enemy in retreat across the Stone-Bridge became apparent.

Sir James was ordered to press forward, and he was able, almost without opposition, not only to take the Iron-Bridge in reverse, which was my principal object, but also to advance for more than a mile and occupy the Muchee Bawun and great Shanbara.

In short the City was ours.

Brigadier General Walpole's Picquets on the left bank were attacked by the retreating Enemy, who was, as usual, heavily repulsed.

On the 19th a combined movement was organized.

Sir James Outram moved forward directly on the Moosa Bagh, the last position of the Enemy on the line of the Goomtee.

Sir J. Hope Grant cannonaded the latter from the left bank, while Brigadier Campbell, moving right round the Western side from the Alum Bagh, prevented retreat in that direction.

The rout was now complete, and great loss was inflicted on the Enemy by all these Columns.

On the 16th for the last time, the Enemy had shown in some strength before Alum Bagh, which on that date was held by only two of our Regiments.

Jung Bahadoor was requested to move to his left up the Canal, and take the position in reverse from which our position at Alum Bagh had been so long annoyed.

This was executed very well by His Highness, and he seized the positions, one after another, with little loss to himself.

The Guns of the Enemy, which the latter did not stop to take away, fell into his hands.

On the 21st, Sir Edward Lugard was directed to attack a stronghold held by the Moulvie in the heart of the City. This he occupied after a sharp contest, and it now became possible to invite the return of the inhabitants, and to rescue the City from the horrors of this prolonged contest.

Brigadier Campbell, with his Cavalry, attacked the Enemy when retreating from the City in consequence of Sir Edward Lugard's advance, inflicting heavy loss, and pursued him for six miles.

I beg to enclose Sir James Outram's own account of his operations, which were removed from my immediate superintendence, till he re-crossed the Goomtee prior to the attack of the 16th.

It was matter of real gratification to me to be able to entrust the Trans-Goomtee operation to this very distinguished Officer, and after that had been conducted to my perfect satisfaction, to bring him forward again to put the finishing stroke on the Enemy, while the extended position in the Town was of necessity held by the Troops who had won it. My thanks are eminently due to him, and I trust he will receive them as heartily as they are offered.

I have now the pleasing task of communicating to your Lordship, the name of an Officer to whom, not only I as Commanding General, but to whom in truth, the service at large is under great obligation. Major General Mansfield, the Chief of the Staff, whose labour has been unceasing, whose abilities are of the highest order, and have been of the greatest use to me during this campaign. It is impossible for me to praise this Officer too highly, or to recommend him sufficiently to the protection of your Lordship and of the Government.

I desire to draw the particular attention of your Lordship to Brigadier-Generals Franks, C. B., Walpole, Sir J. Hope Grant, K. C. B., and Sir Edward Lugard, K. C. B.

Their Divisions have been most admirably Commanded, and they have on every occasion amply justified all my expectations.

Brigadier-Generals Walpole and Sir J. Hope Grant were employed more immediately under the direction of Sir James Outram, who speaks in the highest terms of the assistance he received from them.

Sir J. H. Grant's management of his Cavalry and Horse Artillery is always most admirable.

As detailed above, the manner in which the attacks on the main line of operations were directed by Sir Edward Lugard and Brigadier General Franks reflected the greatest credit on them.

The Officers in Command of the Cavalry Brigades have proved themselves equal to their high position, and are worthy of your Lordship's favorable consideration.

Brigadier Campbell, in Command of the Cavalry on the left, performed his detached duty with much vigilance and judgment. His march round the City on the 19th Instant, which was a running fight for the greater part of the day, was a very difficult one.

His pursuit, on the 21st, of the party which broke away after being driven by Sir Edward Lugard from Shadut Gunge, was highly effective.

Brigadier Hagart has received the marked commendation of Sir J. Hope Grant, and the Brigadiers in Command of Infantry Brigades, have particularly distinguished themselves under the eyes of their Divisional Commanders:—

Brigadier	D. Russell,	1st Brigade.
"	P. M. M. Guy,	3rd "
"	Hon'ble A. Hope,	4th "
"	Douglas, C. B.,	5th "
"	Horsford, C. B.,	6th "
"	Eveleigh,	7th "

and Lieutenant-Colonel Longden, (Her Majesty's 10th Foot), attached to the Gooricha Brigade, by order of the Commander-in-Chief.

The Head Quarters 2nd Brigade, with the 5th, Fusiliers, and 78th Highlanders under Brigadier Franklin, remained at Alum Bagh in position.

and was well disposed by that Officer to resist the Enemy's demonstration on the 16th Instant.

To Major-General Sir Archdale Wilson, K. C. B., my warmest acknowledgments are due for the effective manner in which he Commanded the Artillery Division.

The four Corps, the Naval Brigade, the Royal Artillery, the Bengal Artillery, and the Madras Artillery, worked with the greatest harmony under his happy direction as one Regiment.

The merits of Sir Archdale Wilson are too widely known to gain anything by encomium from me; but I may be permitted to express my great satisfaction at having been able to avail myself of the assistance of this most distinguished Officer. The effective fire of the Artillery during the long operations which depended so much on the management of that arm elicited general admiration.

The practice of the 68-Pounders of the Naval Brigade was capital, while the Kaiser Bagh and other great buildings which had been stormed, showed in a very convincing manner how truly the shells had been directed by the Royal and Bengal Artillery.

Whenever the Field Artillery could be used the Troops of Horse Artillery and Field Batteries of Royal Artillery, the Bengal Artillery and the Madras Artillery did the most excellent service.

Sir Archdale Wilson expresses his great obligations to Captain Sir William Peel, K. C. B., Royal Navy, till that most gallant Officer was severely wounded, and to Brigadiers Wood, C. B., Royal Horse Artillery, and Barker, C. B., Royal Artillery, respectively Commanding the Field and Siege Artillery Brigades.

It would be difficult for me to give an adequate idea of the zeal and activity displayed by the Chief Engineer, Brigadier Napier, Bengal Engineers. Many of the operations depended on his proper appreciation of the obstructions to be overcome, and the means at his disposal for that purpose.

His great professional skill and thorough acquaintance with the value of his Enemy have been of the greatest service, and I recommend him most cordially to your Lordship's protection.

I am under very great obligations to him.

The Officers of the great Departments of the Army have accompanied me during the Siege, and I beg to return them my thanks. They are as follows:—

Major H. W. Norman, Deputy Adjutant General of the Army.

Lieutenant-Colonel W. Macpherson, Officiating Quarter Master General of the Army.

Colonel Hon'ble W. L. Pakenham, C. B., Officiating Adjutant General, H. M.'s Forces.

Captain C. F. Seymour, 8th Regiment, Officiating Quarter Master General H. M.'s Forces.

Captain G. Algood, Officiating Assistant Quarter Master General of the Army.

Lieutenant-Colonel Keith Young, Judge Advocate General of the Army.

Lieutenant P. Stewart, Bengal Engineers, Superintendent of Electric Telegraphs.

Doctor MacAndrew, Inspector General of Hospitals, H. M.'s Forces.

Doctor Brown, the Superintending Surgeon of the Force, has again won my sincere thanks for his admirable arrangements.

Captain Fitzgerald, Assistant Commissary General, who has had the disposition of the Commissariat in the Field, has met every want of the Army. He has distinguished himself much, and is a credit to his Department.

I must draw very particular attention to the services of Major Norman, Deputy Adjutant General, who besides his ordinary Departmental duties, has performed the very onerous one of Adjutant General of the Army in the Field throughout the Campaign.

To Captain H. Bruce, Deputy Quarter Master General, Head of the Intelligence Department, and to Captain G. Algood, Officiating Assistant Quarter Master General, who performed the duties of Quarter Master General of the Army in the Field, until the arrival of Lieutenant-Colonel Macpherson. These Officers have all been most active in the performance of their duties.

To my Personal Staff and that of Major-General Mansfield, my acknowledgments are due, but more particularly to my Military Secretary, Colonel Sterling, C. B., and to Captain R. G. Hope Johnstone, Bombay Army, Deputy Assistant Adjutant General to the Chief of the Staff. These two Officers are most indefatigable.

A List of the other Members of these Staffs is appended.

Finally, I wish to draw your Lordship's attention to the conduct of the Regimental Officers, Commissioned and Non-Commissioned, and to the Men of the Regiments.

Their conduct has been very brilliant throughout. The manner in which the 93rd Regiment flung itself into the Bagum Kotah, followed by the 4th Sikhs and supported by the 42nd, was magnificent, and the subsequent attack on the Imambara and the Kaiser Bagh reflected the greatest credit on the Regimental Leaders of the 4th Division, and the Soldiers who followed them.

Corrected Lists will be sent immediately of the Officers and Soldiers who are deemed most worthy of distinction in a Force in which every one has a claim.

I have the honor to be,

MY LORD,

With the greatest respect,
Your Lordship's most obedient
and humble Servant,

C. CAMPBELL, General,
Commander-in-Chief in India.

Camp Lucknow, 28th March 1858.

MY LORD,

I HAVE the honor to report to your Lordship the departure of His Highness Jung Bahadur from the Camp before Lucknow.

I desire to take this opportunity to express my thanks to His Highness for the assistance rendered to me during the late operations by him and his gallant Troops.

I found the utmost willingness on his part to accede to any desire of mine during the progress of the Siege, and from the first His Highness was pleased to justify his words that he was happy to be serving under my Command.

His Troops have proved themselves worthy of their Commanders, and it will doubtless be a happiness to them hereafter that they were associated with the British Arms for the reduction of the great City of Lucknow.

My best thanks are due to the Special Commissioner, Brigadier General MacGregor, C. B., the medium of communication between His Highness and myself.

I beg to recommend him and the British Officers serving under his orders to the favorable consideration of your Lordship.

I have the honor to be,

MY LORD,

With the greatest respect,
Your Lordship's most obedient
and humble Servant,
C. CAMPBELL, General,
Commander-in-Chief.

being under the Command of Brigadier-General Sir
James Hope Grant,
K. C. B., the Infantry
under that of Brigadier Walpole, the Field Artillery under Brigadier
D. Wood, C. B., the Siege Artillery, which subsequently joined me, under Lieutenant-Colonel Riddell, R. A. After proceeding a short distance in a Northerly direction, the Enemy became visible on our left flank, and on being approached by the Cavalry, they were discovered to be in considerable force, chiefly Sowars. The 2nd Punjab Cavalry then attacked on the Right, while Major Smith, of the Queen's Bays, with two Squadrons of his own Regiment, one Squadron of the 9th Lancers, and Lieutenant-Colonel D'Aguiar's Troop of Horse Artillery, advanced from our left. The Enemy were immediately driven back, and pursued to the banks of the River, many being cut up; but I regret to state that in this charge the gallant Major Smith was killed. Our Camp was then formed on the Fyzabad Road, about half a mile in advance of the village of Chishut, on the Lucknow side. Early on the following morning, 7th March, the Enemy made a smart attack on our advanced picquets, and brought out several Guns under cover of ravines and clumps of trees in our front. They were, however, speedily withdrawn, on our Skirmishers and Horse Artillery and Captain Middleton's Field Battery, protected by the Cavalry, coming to the front and opening their fire. The

Artillery* practice on this occasion, as on the preceding day, was admirable.

3. The following day, the 8th Instant, under the instructions of His Excellency, Colonel D'Aguiar's Troops of Horse Artillery and the 9th Lancers re-crossed the River to the Head Quarters Camp, and the Siege Guns named in the margin joined me. Having decided upon an attack on the Enemy's position, on the next morning, the 9th Instant, I caused an entrenchment for eight 24-Pounder Guns and three 8-inch Howitzers to be constructed during the night. The Battery was armed, and commenced its fire at day-break with excellent effect, after which the Right Column of Infantry, accompanied by Captain

Gibbon's Field Battery, under Brigadier General
Walpole, covered with a cloud of Skirmishers Commanded by Brigadier Horsford, C. B., supported by the 5th Brigade under Brigadier Douglas, drove the Enemy through the jungles, walls, and villages which afforded them an excellent cover, and bringing the right shoulders forward, occupied the Fyzabad Road. In the mean time, the
Fusiliers, supported by 2 Companies of the 79th Highlanders, which had been held in readiness on the left of the Battery, together with the Horse Artillery under Brigadier Wood, which had been formed in rear of the Bridge across the Kobra, advanced, and in concert with the Right Column carried the Chukr Kothee, (or Yellow-house,) the key of the Rebel position, in gallant style, and thereby turned the strong line of entrenchment, which had been constructed by the Enemy on the right bank of the Goomtee, of which success the Skirmishers on the other side of the River, subsequently, were apprized by Lieutenant Butler, of the Bengal Fusiliers, who swam across the Goomtee, and climbing the parapet, remained in that position for a considerable time under heavy fire of Musketry, until the work was occupied. After the occupation of the Chukr Kothee, we drove the Enemy rapidly through the old Irregular Cavalry lines and suburbs to the Padshah Bagh. The fortified gates of this strong-walled enclosure were blown open, and the garden occupied, and two Guns found by our Troops. Three Guns and a Howitzer were then placed in position to enfilade the works in rear of the Martiniere. A Battery of two 24-Pounder Guns and two 8-inch Howitzers was placed near the River to keep down the fire from the Town. A Battery for five Mortars was constructed during the night, and in the morning commenced playing on the Kaiser Bagh. Four Heavy Guns were also placed in a work thrown up by the Enemy at the East entrance into the Padshah Bagh.

4. On the 10th, we were occupied in strengthening our position, the Enemy being in force in the suburbs in our front, from which they made an attack in considerable numbers on a picquet held by the 79th Highlanders, but were repulsed with heavy loss. General Sir James Hope Grant occupied himself the while in patrolling the vicinity, during which operation a most valuable young Officer, Major Sandford, of the 5th Punjab Irregular Cavalry, was unfortunately killed; but the Enemy suffered severely.

5. During this night, another Battery was constructed in the Padshah Bagh for four 24-Pounders, two 8-inch Howitzers, and five 8-inch Mortars, which kept up a vertical and direct fire on the defences in the interior of the Kaiser Bagh. Two more 24-Pounders were also brought to bear on the Mess-house and on the Kaiser Bagh, in compliance with the instructions of His Excellency. I made arrangements to attack the suburbs in the vicinity of the Iron and Stone-Bridges, and shortly after day-light on the 11th Instant, the Right Column as per margin formed on the Fyzabad Road under the immediate Command of Brigadier General Walpole, and worked its way covered by its Skirmishers, through the Town, until it reached the Mosque on the old Cantonment road, which commands the approach to the Iron Bridge.

6. The Left Column as per margin proceeded along the lower road, towards the Iron-bridge. These two Columns were connected by a strong chain of Skirmishers, which, as well as the Left Column, met with considerable opposition, as the Enemy opened 3 Guns on them from the opposite side of the River, and also held the ground in great strength in front of the rifle Skirmishers Commanded by Bravot Major Warren, Captains Wilmot and Thyrne and Lieutenant Grey, who all behaved most gallantly. Captain Thyrne, a most promising Officer, I regret to say, was mortally wounded. This Column occupied the houses down to the river's bank, and the head of the Iron Bridge, to the right of which the two 24-Pounder Guns were placed in Battery. The spirit and dash of the men during this critical operation was most remarkable, and merits my highest commendation. Lieutenant Moorsom, Deputy Assistant Quarter Master General, who had been deputed by me to guide the Column, was killed on the spot while reconnoitring on the opposite side of the road. I deplore sincerely the loss of this most gallant and promising young Officer, whose soldier-like zeal and acquirements rendered him an ornament to his profession.

7. Having left the Bengal Fusiliers posted in the Mosque on the Cantonment Road, I proceeded with the remainder of the Right Column in that direction, and shortly afterwards met Sir J. H. Grant's Cavalry and Horse Artillery, which in the mean time had been operating on the extreme right. Turning now towards the Stone-Bridge, we surprised the Camp of the Rebel 15th Irregular Horse, whose standards and 2 Guns were captured by the Rifles, the Enemy flying in all directions over the plain, many being cut up by our Cavalry.

8. I then penetrated to the head of the Stone-Bridge, through the strong and dense suburbs, without encountering any material opposition. The Enemy, however, were able to command it with Guns, as well as with Musketry, from the tops of several high and strong Stone-Houses, from the opposite side of the River, and the position was moreover too distant, and the approaches too intricate, to warrant my holding it permanently with the Force at my disposal. I therefore withdrew to the Mosque at the cross road, already occupied by the Bengal Fusiliers, our route being through suburbs in which we destroyed a quantity of munitions of war, and finally we retired to Camp, when the arrangements for the occupation of the Iron Bridge had been completed.

9. During the nights of the 12th and 13th, having been reinforced by four 18-Pounder Guns, two 10-inch Howitzers, five 10-inch Mortars and four 54-inch Mortars, three Batteries were erected from which five 10-inch Mortars, ten 8-inch Mortars, four 24-Pounder Guns, were brought to bear upon the Kaiser Bagh, on the fall of which on the morning of the 14th, the Guns and Mortars were turned on the Residency, and the buildings to the right of the Bridge. During this operation Lieutenant Cuthbert, of the Royal Artillery, brought himself prominently to notice by extinguishing a fire in a small building in front of his Battery, in a very dangerous and exposed position. The operations connected with a breast-work across the Iron Bridge, were conducted by Lieutenant Wynne, R. E., and Sergeant Paul, who displayed great coolness and resolution in the face of a heavy and continual fire.

Having been ordered to join His Excellency's Camp, my operations on the North side of the Goomtee were here brought to a close.

Our casualties during these proceedings amounted to five Officers killed and nine wounded, and the loss in men including Sergeants, was twenty-one killed and one hundred and four wounded. Total twenty-six killed and one hundred and thirteen wounded. With the exception of the Officers, the above statement of casualties does not include the Cavalry Division, General Sir J. H. Grant having been ordered off into the district, neither his casualty list, nor his notice of his Officers has been received. From the peculiar nature of the fighting, the actual loss of the Enemy is difficult to ascertain. But I cannot estimate it at less than two thousand throughout the whole operations.

On the 16th Instant, under instructions from His Excellency, I proceeded to the Kaiser Bagh, where I found the 5th Brigade under the Command of Brigadier Douglas, C. B., comprising the 23rd Fusiliers, the 79th Highlanders, and the 1st Bengal Fusiliers, to which His Excellency had added Her Majesty's 20th Regiment and the Ferozepore Regiment of Sikhs.

Vast numbers of the Enemy having been seen crossing the Stone Bridge from the City, apparently with the design of attacking Brigadier General Walpole's Camp, on the North of the Goomtee, His Excellency ordered me to press our movement. I immediately ordered the advance, and took possession of the Residency with little opposition, the 23rd Fusiliers charging through the gateway, and driving the Enemy before them at the point of the bayonet, the remainder of the Brigade following them in reserve.

The Enemy having been dislodged from the Residency, two Companies of the 23rd, under Lieutenant-Colonel Bell, accompanied by Captain Gould Weston, who pointed out the road, pressed rapidly forward, and captured the brass Gun, which was in position to sweep the Iron Bridge, after some opposition. In the meanwhile the Residency height was crowned by a Field Battery of Madras Artillery, under the Command of Major Cotter, which kept up a heavy fire on the Muchhee Bhowm. This Battery was subsequently withdrawn, and replaced by two 68-Pounder Guns of the Naval Brigade. On their arrival, the Bengal Fusiliers moved to the Iron Bridge, and shortly afterwards advanced, together with the Regiment of Ferozepore, and took the Muchhee Bhowm and the Inambarah, the Enemy precipitately retiring, and abandoning six Guns. One Company of the Fusiliers under Captain Salisbury was pushed on to the Roomidurwaza gate, where another Gun was captured. The 79th were then brought up to occupy the Inambarah, and the remainder of the Bengal Fusiliers were placed in the Muchhee Bhowm.

On the morning of the 17th, Brigadier Douglas caused the Hoseinabad Mosque and the Dowlut-khana, in which two Guns and a small Mortar were found, to be occupied by a Company of the 79th Highlanders. About 1 P.M., with the Force named in the margin, I moved towards the block of buildings known as Sharfoodowlah's house, having previously occupied the entrance to the Chowk with 3 Companies of the 79th Highlanders.

On arriving at the Jama Masjid, nine cart loads of powder were found in a court-yard in the rear, which impeded our progress. I therefore directed it to be destroyed under the supervision of the Engineers. I regret, however, to have to state that from some accidental cause the powder ignited.

Captain Clarke, R. E., and Lieutenant Brownlow, B. E., who had greatly distinguished themselves, have since died from the effects of the explosion, in whose melancholy death the Service has sustained a heavy loss, which I sincerely deplore. About thirty men shared their fate, and the rest of the working party were more or less injured.

I then sent two Companies of the 79th Highlanders with one 8-inch Howitzer, to take possession of Sharfoodowlah's house, which was occupied without any casualty, the Enemy precipitately retreating, although they had made every preparation for a vigorous defence. An Iron Gun and a Brass Gun with an Ammunition Waggon, together with several small Guns, all in position, were captured.

I then reinforced the three Companies of the 79th in the Chowk, with five Companies of the 20th Regiment, and completed the chain of communication.

On the 18th, Brigadier Douglas ordered Lieutenant Gordon, Commanding a picquet of the 20th, to clear the houses in his front, which he effected much to the Brigadier's satisfaction, killing twenty-three of the Enemy.

The Stone-Bridge was found to be undermined, and the circumstance reported to His Excellency.

On the morning of the 19th, under instructions from His Excellency, I proceeded to attack the Moosa Bagh, the Force named in the margin, being assembled for that purpose.

A.M., I proceeded to Gao Ghat, and found Ali Nuki Khan's house occupied by the Enemy, who opened a sharp fire of Musketry on the head of the Column. Two Companies of the 79th, led by Lieutenant Everath, being ordered to advance, soon drove the Enemy out, and took possession of it. Considerable delay here took place in consequence of having to break through a thick wall, during which time I ordered up a Wing of the Bengal Fusiliers to occupy the house.

The Troops then advanced through the suburbs without opposition towards Moosa Bagh, which position the Enemy was reported to occupy with thirteen Guns, and five or six thousand men.

On arriving on the open ground two Guns were opened on the Column, and the Enemy appeared in great strength on the road. I immediately ordered out Skirmishers from the 79th and 23rd, and Capt. Middleton's Battery to the front, whose fire soon silenced that of the Enemy, during which time the Lancers made a flank movement to the Enemy's left, and on our advance, their whole Force took to flight, abandoning their Guns; on finding which I sent to order back the heavy Guns under escort of the three Companies of the 20th Regiment as being no longer required.

The two Squadrons of the 9th Lancers followed up the pursuit for about four miles, when they overtook the Enemy, captured six Guns and killed about a hundred of them, the rest dispersing over the Country, and escaping by the aid of the Nulhis and broken feature of the Country. The conduct of the Officers and men of the 9th, was most gallant, as they undauntedly charged masses of the Enemy.

The Field Artillery and Infantry followed in support as rapidly as possible, and captured four more Guns, making in all twelve, which I believe to be the total possessed by the Enemy, no trace of the reported thirteenth Gun being observable.

I then occupied the Moosa Bagh with the 2nd Punjab Infantry under Major Green, and withdrew the rest of the Troops to their quarters in the City.

Throughout the course of these operations, which were very laborious, the cheerfulness and zeal of both Officers and Men were most conspicuous, and merit my warmest thanks.

I have to express my particular acknowledgments to Brigadier-General Walpole, who afforded me on every occasion the most cordial support, and very ably carried out the operations which fell to his share; also to Brigadier-General Sir James Hope Grant, commanding the Cavalry, whose vigilance and activity in the execution of his onerous duties were unceasing.

Brigadier Wood, C. B., Commanding the Field Batteries, and Lieutenant-Colonel Riddell, Commanding the Siege Train, carried on their respective duties to my entire satisfaction. The services of Lieutenant-Colonel Turner, B. A., specially attached to the Force, were of the highest value to me, and I beg to tender him my cordial acknowledgments for the same.

It is a source of much gratification to me to submit the names of those Officers engaged in the operations on the North bank of the Goomtee, who have been honorably mentioned by Brigadier-General Walpole and their respective Commandants, viz., Brigadiers Horsford, C. B., and Douglas, Commanding 5th and 6th Brigades, Lieut-Colonel Hill, Commanding 2nd Battalion Rifle Brigade, Lieut-Colonel Macdonald, C. B., Commanding 3rd Battalion Rifle Brigade, Captain Gibbon, R. A., who commanded the 9-Pounder Field Battery.

The Brigadier-General also particularly notices the conduct of Captain Barwell, Deputy Assistant Adjutant General, and Captain Carey, Deputy Assistant Quarter Master General; also that of Captain Warner, A. D. C., and Lieutenant Eccles, his Orderly Officer.

The Brigadiers wish to record the services of their respective Staffs:—Captain Macpherson, 78th Highlanders, (wounded.) Brigade Major of the 5th Brigade, Brevet Major Mollan, Brigade Major 6th Brigade, and Brevet Major Ross, and Lieutenant Walker, their Orderly Officers.

Brigadier Wood, C. B., favorably mentions the conduct and professional knowledge of Lieutenant-Colonel Turner, Lieutenant-Colonel D'Aguiar, Major Yates, Brevet-Major Pennywick, Captain Gibbon, Captain Mackinnon, Captain Remington, and Captain Johnston; he also notices the assistance he received from Captain Frith, his Brigade-Major, and Captain Scott, in charge of the Commissariat arrangements.

Lieutenant-Colonel Riddle, Commanding Siege Train, eulogizes Captains Thring, Goodenough, and Walker, R. A., Captain Pearson and Lieutenant Mison, R. A., and Lieutenants Cuthbert and FitzMaurice, R. A., and Major Turner and Captain Young, Staff Officers.

Major Nicholson, R. E., highly applauds the energy displayed by the Officers of that Department, viz., Lieutenants Malcolm, Wynne, Swetenham, and Keith, R. E., and Lieutenants Watson, Dentant, Hovenden, and Nuthall, B. E.

Lieutenant-Colonel Wells records the services of Major Bruce, Captains Prevost, Duff and Norton, of the 23rd Fusiliers.

I have next to notice the services of the Officers engaged on the South of City side of the River.

Brigadier Napier, Captain Hutchinson, Brigade Major, and Lieutenant Gresham, of the Engineers, afforded me on different occasions the greatest assistance by their professional advice, and I tender them my cordial thanks; they were ably assisted by Lieutenant Tulloch and Mr. May, attached to that Department.

Major Broyser led his Sikhs with his usual gallantry, and I regret to add, was severely wounded.

My thanks are also due to Captain Bennett, Commanding Her Majesty's 20th Regiment.

Captain Coles, in Command of two Squadrons of the 9th Lancers, did good service in pursuing the Enemy when they abandoned their position in the Moosa Bagh. On this occasion the local knowledge of Captain Carey, Deputy Assistant Quarter Master General of the 3rd Division, was of much use to me. Captain Dodgson, Assistant Adjutant General, Captain Gordon, Deputy Judge Advocate General, and Ensign Hewitt, 41st Regiment N. I., Orderly Officer, were present at the occupation of the Moosa Bagh, having joined me from Alum Bagh, where they had been of much service in their respective appointments.

I have lastly to bring to His Excellency's consideration the services of those Officers who had the good fortune to be engaged in all the operations on both sides of the River.

Brigadier Douglas has carried out all his instructions with signal ability and success, and deserves my cordial acknowledgments, as does Major Nicholson, R. E., who evinced the most indefatigable industry in the construction of the heavy Batteries which it fell to his Department to execute, and in choosing sites for which he was constantly exposed to very heavy fire.

Lieutenant Colonel Wells Commanded the 23rd Fusiliers until incapacitated by illness (on the last day's operation) when the Command was assumed by Lieutenant-Colonel Pratt, who also Commanded the left Column of attack on the 11th Instant, across the river. Lieutenant-Colonel Taylor was in command of the 79th Highlanders, Major Green, Punjab Rifles, and Captain Cunliffe, Commanded the 1st Bengal Fusiliers, until the arrival of Captain Hume, who also deserves my thanks. Captain Middleton Commanded the Field Battery, which was actively engaged throughout.

Brigadier Douglas mentions with approbation, Captain Stevenson, Acting Brigade Major, and Lieutenants Walker, 79th, and Utterson, 23rd Fusiliers, his A. D. C. and Orderly Officer.

I have the highest pleasure in acknowledging how much I am indebted to the Officers of my Personal Staff.

His Excellency is already aware of the opinion I have formed of the merits and services of Colonel Berkely, H. M.'s 32nd Regiment, my Military Secretary; and the assistance I have derived from him throughout these operations, is an additional obligation I am under to this most deserving Officer.

Captain Chamber, A. D. C., and Lieutenant Hargood, A. D. C., (Horse killed), have worked with the unremitting zeal and activity which has characterized their conduct in all the operations in which I have been engaged since I left Allahabad in September last.

Captain Weston, 65th Regiment N. I., Orderly Officer, has signalized himself by the spirit and gallantry which he has displayed on several occasions, and has been of much use to me.

Captains Orr and Bunbury, of the Intelligence Department, have performed their duties with great ability, and Mr. Denison, C. S., who recently brought up Despatches from the Governor General, accompanied the Forces, and was most active and zealous in rendering aid to the poor sufferers who were blown up in the explosion on the 17th Instant.

Mr. Kavanagh, Assistant Commissioner, from his knowledge of the localities, rendered good service on several occasions.
